BEAVER VALLEY

Its Mineral Wealth and Resources.

ITS IMMENSE WATER POWER.

A Country Underlaid with Coal and Minerals.

A SCRAP OF HISTORY.

[LETTER No. 21.]

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

Its Resources.

The resources of this favorite little valley, for the purposes of manufacturing, are far beyond what the great majority of its people are aware, although much has been said and written concerning it. It is not too much to say that every hill is filled with minerals in the form of coal, iron and stone, unsurpassed for general use in building; every flat is the deposit of thick layers of the finest quality of clay, and the river is the natural motive power of hundreds of mills and factories. But comparatively few of our people are aware of the fact that every time they tread the soil of Beaver Valley that they cover riches of mineral wealth that have made other places famous the world over. We dream away our chances of future wealth, and the stranger who appreciates just such resources as we have, takes them from our grasp and reaps his reward. It is no wonder that men seventy years ago were anxious to obtain the rich acres of our valley, even though they might to the rugged hillsides and the apparently non-productive flats and vales. They were wise in their generation, and laid the foundations for the comfortable fortunes that their children now enjoy. The good people here seem, to some extent, to know what an immense natural power is at their feet, and take it as a matter of course that everybody else sees it, and are quietly and patiently waiting for somebody to utilize it. They are asleep, and may sleep unto death if not careful.

Its Water Power.

The most striking feature in the valley, and one that first greets the eye of the beholder, is the immense water-power that courses and dashes on its way to the Ohio.

The Beaver river is composed of the Mahoning, Shenango, Neshannock, Connoquenessing, Slippery Rock and other tributaries, draining an exceedingly fertile valley of about five thousand square miles. In the last five miles of the course of the river it falls sixty-nine feet, furnishing water-power and Eligible Sites for Hundreds of Mills.

The valley in the vicinity of the falls is from one-half to a mile in width, and the stream probably about six hundred feet wide. It is bounded on the east and west by high and in some places abrupt, perpendicular hills, and the channel of the river has a continuous bed of solid rock. About the year 1822, the United States Government appointed a Board of Commissioners to establish a National Armory on the western waters of the United States, and after a patient, laborious and scientific examination and estimate of all the prominent sites for waterworks in Western Pennsylvania, Virginia, the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, Indiana and Ohio, gave this site the preference above all the others.

The report states that in the year 1822, when "the water was lower than at any former period within recollection, there was flowing through the channel or mill races, at Fallston, 85 cubic feet per second; and the volume of the river was estimated to be three times that in the canal." "The volume of water in the canal or race at a low stage, in ordinary seasons, does not exceed one-eighth of the whole volume of the river, and the whole quantity supplied by the river, at its lowest stage in 1822, was 226 cubic feet per second." At the time of this report, there was but a single dam, whereas there are now four, the upper one of which presents a head of about fifteen feet, with a seven mile pool above it, containing and only a trifle of which has as yet been utilized. This immense power in this pool, and that furnished by the additional dams put up since 1822, was, of course, not recognized by the United States engineers in their report, one of whom afterwards acknowledged that their estimate was very far below the facts of the case. It is the opinion of many that the power is fully four times that stated by the Commissioners. The water power is available at all seasons of the year, and but very little time is lost during either the floods that sometimes visit us, or when a drought is upon us with its withering influence.

How the Water-Power is Divided.

The water-power of the valley is divided into four hundred shares, one hundred being used in Fallston, one hundred in New Brighton, and two hundred in Beaver Falls. That of Beaver Falls may yet be increased to a much larger number and power by the raising of the upper dam, and putting to use more of the immense volume of water in "seven mile level." Indeed, there is no reason why the water-power alone might not give motive power enough for factories and mills to support a teeming population, filling the whole of the lower valley. Scores of factories are now run by it, and yet there is but a fraction of the water in Beaver Falls that is put to use. That of Fallston is, I believe, either in use or mills being put in order to utilize the whole of the water-power. That of New Brighton is also pretty well put to use, but Beaver Falls, notwithstanding it has so many factories, has yet much power, capable of running more manufactories than it now has, and, of course, adding materially to the wealth of the town. I have not the data to make any exact calculations as to the power and capacity of the water used here. Those who have used it from twenty to fifty years know very well that a few shares will run a mill or a factory, but that seems to be about all.

It is safe enough to say, however, that were the water power used to drive machinery for the manufacture of woolens and cottons alone, it would give employment to not less than four or five thousand people, and at fair wages to make the working people comfortable. It would run enough flouring mills to make it famous everywhere for the magnitude of the work done.

But put the water to work running to full capacity the different kinds of manufacturing done, and it requires no great mathematical skill to show that instead of a population of about 17,000 people, we should be able to support not less than 25,000 as soon as the factories and mills were in operation. Add to this the steam power that may be utilized, and the energy that we ought to have, and not many years hence the boasted city of the valley would become a real, live thing, seen and known of men.

Its Mineral Resources.

Of the minerals of the valley not so much has been said as their character and abundance would seem to call for. In the matter of coal alone there is quite a source of wealth, and fully enough to give the valley character. The high lands of the whole valley are underlaid by three veins of coal of about 2, 3 and 4 feet in thickness respectively. The vein that has been most extensively mined is the well known 3 feet vein, which yields a very fine and reliable coal, remarkably free from sulphuret of iron, and when coked, suitable for the blast furnace. It has been extensively mined for many years, not only for our home market, but as well for the lake markets, General C. M. Reed of Erie, alone having run over 100 canal boats in the traffic for 20 years or more, to supply steamers, gas works, &c. The demand for the coal found in this vein is still increasing and at this time it is a very difficult matter to obtain anything like sufficient and ready transportation for it by rail. This vein yields fully 3,500 tons to the acre. The two feet vein has not yet been thoroughly explored. Operators have, however, commenced to do so, at a point near the northwestern corner of Beaver Falls, and the intention is to fully test it. The coal is very pure and well adapted in its raw state for the blast furnace. The four feet vein is pretty extensively mined at some points for home uses. In addition to these veins of good bituminous coal, fitted for the use of our manufacturers, there is also said to be a fine vein of cannel coal a short distance west of Fallston, which is being tested, and may prove very valuable. It is well known that there is an abundance of this coal near Darlington, in this county, and Beaver Valley may also be filled with it. All along the Beaver river there is

A Large Business Done in Coal Mining,

and in a special manner at Clinton, where large works are constantly in operation. These and other works send hundreds and thousands of tons of the black diamonds to other markets outside of the valley, and yet the supply seems inexhaustible. It is a source of great wealth to the valley, and might be made much more so, by using it in manufacturing within our own borders. Instead of shipping such a bulky material in its crude form, let it be sent to the markets of the world in the shape of iron and other manufactured articles. Immediately underneath all the coal mentioned, sheets of fireclay are found of from 3 to 8 feet in thickness, at some points very extensively used in manufacturing fire-brick and pottery.

There are, besides, some alluvial deposits of great magnitude, two of which Mr. Webster, of Beaver Falls, largely consumes in his knob works, located in that town. Immediately above the two and three feet coal veins mentioned, massive belts of blue shale, from twelve to sixteen feet thick, are uniformly found, and at many points thickly studded with balls and plates of iron ore of excellent quality—very desirable, indeed, to mix with the rich oxides brought from the North and from Missouri. Lower down in the hill-sides two solid plates of iron ore, nearly in contact, and together measuring about sixteen inches, are found, also of excellent quality, and sure to be largely mined in the future. Assurance is given that there is quite an abundance of ore, in paying quantities, scattered among the hills of the valley, and some in easy distance of New Brighton and Beaver Falls, where it may be sent to market without any very great cost. The closing of the canal has, for the present, put a quietus on mining these ores, but undoubtedly it must be done in the immediate future, to the advantage of all concerned.

The Quarries.

The hills are also thickly studded with a most excellent quality of stone. The quarries have not yet been sufficiently explored, but openings that have already been made give assurance that a very large business must be done in that line. The thickness of the stratum is fully thirty feet, of uniform quality, easily dressed and well suited for building purposes, grind stones, &c. There is not a hillside but can be seen cropping out the edges of these immense deposits of stone, and which in themselves are a mine of wealth. Some quarrying has been done, but as yet it has not become a business in the valley. Of the immense quantity of this stone no one can tell, but surface indications would lead us to believe that it is well nigh inexhaustible. If the stratum is of a uniform thickness of thirty feet, the amount in the hills of the valley is simply enormous. And what makes it more interesting is that it is all of the very finest quality. For building purposes it has been tested, and found to be unexcelled anywhere in our region of country.

An Abundance of Lime.

There is also an abundance of lime in the valley, and a large business is already being done in preparing it for use. At several points in the valley, large kilns are in constant operation, from which are sent vast amounts to other markets beyond our borders. This will, in the lapse of years, become a much more productive source of material wealth than it now is. From this necessarily brief epitome of the resources of the valley, it will be seen that there is not much room to spare in our hills—they being thickly studded with the greatest abundance of mineral wealth. These resources lie comparatively idle, and the people of Beaver valley offer, as an inducement to capital, the articles of wealth before enumerated, to meet the diversified wants of manufacturing interests and proudly point to the past successful career of all who have in any way engaged in utilizing the varied resources within our borders. The rush of waters, as they dash over the rocks in the Beaver, is as musical to the ear of industry as it has ever been, and the coal, the iron and the clay are all lying ready for the man or men who shall dig them from their native hills, and bless the world with their use. But this, of course, is not all that can be offered to any who may wish to try their fortunes among us.

To these blessings of nature there are to be added advantages natural to the valley, and others added by the hand of man, that make it still more attractive to capital. But the length of this letter necessitates another, devoted to the advantages of Beaver Valley. BEAVER.

DEAD ENGLISH KINGS.

Interesting Explorations Among the Royal Tombs of Westminster Abbey.

Moncure D. Conway writes from London to the Cincinnati Commercial as follows:

"The Dean of Westminster has just given before the Society of Antiquarians an interesting account of several Kings' skulls. Shakespeare's words, 'Come, let us sit on the ground and talk of the death of the Kings,' are hardly polite enough to quote at a moment when so many Princes are lying around loose; but the Antiquarians fell into this vein on Thursday evening, and listened with deep attention to Dean Stanley's narrative. He has just explored the tomb Richard II.—the King whose splendid beginning and miserable end made old Froissart say: 'I have seen two strange things in my time.' Two sets of human bones were found in the tomb of Richard, male and female; it was certain that the female was Annie, of Bohemia, and the Dean discussed whether the others where the remains of Richard. The measurement of the skull showed it to be below the average size of the English skull; however, Mr. Richmond thought the skull would agree with the character of the King's. Sprigs of poplar, considered in his time a preventive against witchcraft, were found in the tomb. Rushes were there, also, proving that the tomb, though ransacked, had never been actually entered. Some rubbish was found which must have been cast in by passers by. The tomb of Henry III. had also been explored by the Dean. About the identity of Henry's remains there is no doubt. The casting of the effigy upon it is nearly perfect, though it was among the first of such castings. The coffin was found covered with cloth of gold, and that covered with dust. The cloth had so lost its strength that a breath from the mouth would change any bit of it to dust. The Dean is responsible for having disturbed the bones of many an old monarch in the interest of science. It is curious that while so many of such tombs have been opened, no one yet dares to suggest the exploration of that of Shakespeare. The tomb of William Rufus was opened to find whether the story of his death by the arrow of Tyrrell was true, as the legend said that the arrow had been buried with the king. Sure enough the arrow was found. Also the grave of John Hampden was explored, to see if it were true that he had lost a hand in his engagement with Prince Rupert, and the amputated hand was found. but although the fearful imprecation written on the supposed—only supposed—grave of Shakespeare leads many to suspect that some explanation of the confessed mystery surrounding him lies buried there, that imprecation seems to be the reason why no one proposes to dig into it. Indeed, so much superstition invests that grave in the Stratford Church that it is likely that the villagers would rise up in arms at any such attempt as was once made by Miss Bacon, the American monomaniac, whom some of the Stratfordians say, no sooner raised a pick over the grave than she was struck with madness. But it is plain from the explorations of Dean Stanley in Westminster Abbey that such divinity doth not hedge about a King as hedges about the 'immortal Williams,' as the French call him."

CHINESE WOMEN.

Some Interesting Facts Concerning Them.

Mrs. Baldwin, a missionary to China, gives some interesting facts in regard to the women of that country. She says girls have no choice of their husbands; the young girl is sold by her parents at the highest price they can obtain for her, until after they are married. If he chooses he can be divorced from her for talking too much; if he becomes poor or gets tired of her, he sells her again. In the coldest weather the large footed women are not allowed to wear stockings, and cannot dress in any other color than black or blue. The manner in which they make their feet small is by binding the four toes under the foot, which they keep bound up for about eleven years, when the foot becomes dead. I have walked through the streets when the women would brush against my dress so as to see my feet, so that they could tell to what class I belonged. I would say to them, "I will show you my feet, but do not pull my clothes, as it is rude." When I would expose my feet to them, they would exclaim: "Why have you no real ladies in America?" And the only way that I could make them believe that we had, was by telling them that the women read books like the men, which utterly astounded them, as the real Chinese is brought up in the utmost ignorance, and they only marry in the rich families, because they know and do so little, and need so much waiting upon, that it takes a rich husband to support them. If you ask a Chinese woman how many children she has, she will give you only the number of boys. She has to be asked the second time how many girls she has, as they are thought so little of that, in many cases, they are killed as soon as born. A large-footed woman told me once that her first child was a little girl, and she described to me how she loved the little one. "My husband went out," she said, "brought in a tub of water. I begged him to spare its life, but he took the little one and put its head in the water, and held it there until it was dead. My second babe was a daughter, and it was served the same as the first; the third child was a boy; he lived until he was about four years old, then the gods got angry and killed him. Then my husband died; and if I eat anything that is nice, and if I wear good clothes, my relatives become angry, and treat me harshly." Even in our Christian churches in China the women are not allowed in the same room with the men, but are partitioned off in a lattice-work room.

LONDON.

Police and Other Statistics.

Col. Henderson, the chief commissioner of police, supplied the Shah, at his own request, with some statistics of London, which greatly interested him, especially the fact that the streets of London patrolled by the police would reach, in a straight line, from London to Teheran, and thence to Point de Galle, in Ceylon, 6 612 miles. The following statistics were also supplied to the Shah, and will probably be new to most of our readers: The area of London, consisting of the Metropolitan police district, 688¼, and the city police district, 1¾, is 690 square miles. The population, from the census tables of 1871, of the Metropolitan police district is 3,810,744, and the estimated increase to this date, 1873, is 140,018; the city police district is 74,897, affording a total population of 4,025,659. The total length of streets and roads patrolled by the Metropolitan police is 6,612 miles, and the addition or increase in the length of streets during the past ten years is 3,623 miles. As the crow flies from London to Point de Galle the distance is 6,600 miles. Teheran is in the direct line between these two places, 2,800 miles from London, and 3,800 miles from Point de Galle. The number of inhabited houses in the Metropolitan police district is 519,489, in the city police district 9,305—giving a total of 528,894. The number of omnibuses is 1,400, and of hackney carriages 8,108. The estimated number of horses drawing public carriages, allowing two horses for each hackney carriage and six horses for each omnibus (which is about the average number), is 25,000. The strength of the Metropolitan police is 9,927, and of the city police 785—giving a total of 10,712. The numbers of cattle, sheep, etc., sold, last year, in the Metropolitan cattle market, were: Oxen, 240,000; sheep and lambs, 1,525,000; calves, 30,000; pigs, 8,500; total, 1,893,500. The quantity of dead meat brought to the Metropolitan meat and poultry market during the year 1872 was as follows: Country meat, 87,170 tons; town killed and foreign, 66,875 tons; total, 154,045 tons.

CLEVELAND SUNDAY LIQUOR LAW.

A Quiet Sunday—Saloons all Closed—Eccentricities of Saloon Keepers—Flags at Half-Mast—Siege upon Physicians for Prescriptions, &c.

[From Monday's Cleveland Leader.]

The Sunday liquor law was for the first time enforced yesterday throughout the seventeen wards of Cleveland. From the testimony of our reporters, who were on the alert throughout the day, it would appear that the city enjoyed one of the most quiet, orderly Sundays that it has known for years. The sensible determination of the saloon keepers to respect the law and close their bar rooms was carried out to an extent which made it difficult, if not impossible, for the poor men to spend any of their last week's wages for rum. The exploit of a prominent beer-seller in setting out a stall in front of his saloon equipped with books and buttermilk, was a harmless joke, which the perpetrator probably enjoyed. There was an unusual siege upon the physicians for all sorts of prescriptions containing alcohol, and there was, of course, an exceptionally large and enthusiastic hegira of the inconsolables to the cool groves and bounteous drinking places of Rocky River.

SUNDAY MORNING

quiet reigned throughout every portion of the city, and from all that we have been able to learn there was not one saloon open. In several portions of the city old soakers trundled about rapping at saloon and grocery doors, searching in vain for their accustomed dram, turning away from every house with countenances indicative of the most supreme contempt for the wisdom of our City Fathers. In some places they strolled about in groups of three and four, applying at front and back doors, and begging for only a drop to appease their gnawing thirst. They finally separated and made up their minds to pass the day in a state of sobriety.

LITERATURE AND MILD DRINKS.

In a well known saloon and restaurant, kept by Mr. Carl Seyler, a number of persons called for lager and wine at an early hour and were invited to take a seat in front of the saloon at a table covered with a selection of the German classics. While reading they were regaled with a glass of sweet milk, lemonade or clear cold water. In this restaurant nothing stronger than the above named drinks were offered to boarders during the day.

A DISGRACEFUL ROW.

About seven o'clock in the evening word was brought to the Third precinct police station that a crowd of men were out on the commons near the Garden street railroad stables drinking beer, carousing and insulting every one who came within their reach. They numbered from thirty to forty, and they marched up Garden street with casks of beer on their shoulders, uttering their maledictions of temperance people, cursing the Young Men's Christian Association, and swearing that no power would deprive them of what they wanted to drink. If they met a lady walking on the commons she was at once seized and an attempt made to kiss her. A few men and a large number of boys gathered about them, and the noise of their combined voices filled the whole neighborhood for a short time.

HALF MAST.

A sacred concert had been advertised for Lied's garden, with the understanding that the audience should be refreshed with nothing but lemonade, pop, small beer, and other blunt edged beverages. Those who visited the garden with the expectation of hearing a concert were disappointed. They found the doors of the buildings and the gates of the garden closed, and above the house swung the American flag at half mast, under it a large piece of black crape, and below this were the Prussian colors. "Freedom shrieked" throughout the beer gardens, and the screaming eagle fled in dismay when Glazier's ordinance was passed.

OTHER INCIDENTS.

Several saloon keepers indulged in freaks of eccentricity expressive of their "pheelinx" on the subject. One Rose (he would smell of lager by any name) planted his bar in the middle of the room, covered it with a heavy pall and draped the windows of his saloon with the blackest crape. When his friends came they were invited to partake of a glass of water in the midst of these ghastly surroundings, and to meditate upon the decline and fall of constitutional liberty in America. Men of obtuse minds may not see the point to the joke, but let no one suppose that it lacked in wit. The whole neighborhood was one broad grin.

One saloon keeper hung a basket on his door for callers cards. Another placed a pail of water and a mug at his entrance, with an explanatory card. A man on St. Clair street posted a copy of the Sunday ordinance on his window beside his license, which he declared gave him a right to sell three hundred and sixty-five days in the year.

Several saloons hung black crape on their doors, and others replaced their signs by the words: "Prayer Meeting here this Day and Evening."

A wagon belonging to Mr. Haltnerth, containing a large cask labelled "ice water," paraded the streets of the city. He undoubtedly desired to keep his customers alive until Monday morning by quenching their thirst with water until something stronger could be sold.

The History of the Mosquito.

Mosquitoes immigrated to this country in the year one. They are the smallest fowl that navigate the air. Although not soaring so high as other fowls, they make some fouler sores than any other bird ever dreamed of. They are not very devout, although they are birds of prey. They are so tame that they will come up and eat out of a fellow's hand. As songsters they are a success, making some of the sweetest sounds ever heard. We are sometimes constrained to stay awake all night and listen to their strains, even if it's ever so confounded straining on us. If any one doesn't like their music he can lump it, and failing to do so, they will lump him, and if he "gets on his ear" about it, such a proceeding is foolish, for they are very accommodating and will get on his ear for him. I like their music better than anything else about them. Many a time have I laid on my downy bed and listened to them as they sung "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming," "We Don't Go Home Till Morning" and such like, till I have been so called away (and wishing I was carried still further) that I've joined in the melody "Shoo Fly," and cheering them by clapping my hands together, in the hope of giving the little suckers an affectionate squeeze.—Danbury News.

[Special to the N. Y. Herald.]

LONDON, July 28.—At Carthagena, Spain, yesterday, the red flag of the Intransigentes, which had been flying above the fortresses and ships in the harbor, was replaced by the national flag.

In anticipation of trouble, the iron clads Mendez and Muney had left the arsenal yard and anchored in the port, ready for any movement, also the Nuncia, Vittoria and others. To day the iron clads, accompanied by three steamers, were to issue from the harbor, and if interfered with, will fire upon the attacking vessels. A sanguinary naval engagement is expected.

Rebel Ships to be Treated as Pirates.

The Prussian and English Consuls have received orders from their respective Ministers to notify the cruisers that the rebel ships are pirates, and to treat them as such. The rebels threaten that if any vessel belonging to foreign powers interferes, to massacre the consuls and foreigners in the city. Strangers are apprehensive, and are flying for their lives.

AUSTRIA.

American Reapers and Mowers at the Exposition.

NEW YORK, July 28.—A Vienna correspondent of the Tribune says that the trial of mowers and reapers, which took place on the 9th inst., was a complete triumph for the Americans. At the last moment the English and French backed out, and there were only four European machines on the ground. Fourteen American reapers and fifteen American mowers competed. All the American machines did their work well, except one, which broke down at the start, through no fault of the machine, but through the stupidity of the driver. The arrangements were stupidly defective. There was no programme, no system. Most of the teams were unused to work and gave a great deal of trouble. Some were immense, powerful stallions, and others wretched, rawboned beasts, that could scarcely pull the machines. Then the grain differed greatly in different parts of the field, so that the trial, with the conditions so unequal, was no test as far as speed was concerned. Doctor Warder, who was entitled to sit as one of the jurors, declined, the exhibitors protesting against him, on the ground that he was interested in one of the machines. So America went unrepresented, and the jury was composed entirely of foreigners. It is reported that all the American mowers and reapers that took part in the trial will get medals; some for progress, others for merit. The awards will not be made until next month.

MEXICO.

Revolution Imminent in Nuevo Leon.

MATAMORAS, July 28.—The Voez Publico of this city states that a revolution is imminent in the State of Nuevo Leon. There are three aspirants for Governor in that State, and there, being no choice by the people, the election will devolve on the Legislature, which will meet in Monterey, in September next. So intense is party hatred, originating in the revolution of last year, and renewed in the present political contest, that an outbreak is regarded as inevitable. Private advices state that prominent residents of Monterey are already preparing to leave that city to avoid being complicated in the threatened trouble.

ITALY.

The Pope and Free Masonry.

ROME, July 28.—The Pope, to-day, received a number of newly nominated Bishops. In his address he urges them to defend zealously the rights of the Church. Referring to the conflict of the ecclesiastical authorities in Brazil with Free Masonry, he said Free Masons were liable to excommunication the same as members of other secret societies, notwithstanding the charitable objects of their organization.

Election in Naples.

The Liberals have carried the election in Naples.

GERMANY.

Responsibility for the Seizure of the Spanish Steamer Disavowed.

BERLIN, July 28.—The German Government disavows any responsibility for the seizure of the Spanish steamer Vigelante, and calls upon Captain Warner, commanding the German man-of-war which effected the capture, to account for his proceedings. His report of the affair has not yet been received.

FRANCE.

The Shipping Tax Abolished.

PARIS, July 28.—The Assembly has passed a bill abolishing the shipping tax.

Vigilance Committee.

The extreme Left has to form a vigilance committee, which is to report after each meeting of the Permanent Committee of the Assembly during the recess.

MEMPHIS.

The Assassination of Mr. Moore.

MEMPHIS, July 28.—The assassination of Mr. Frank M. Moore, yesterday morning, has been the all-absorbing topic on the streets to-day. Coroner Caldwell held a post mortem examination on the body. The ball which caused his death was extracted. It proved to be a large conical ball, fired from a cartridge pistol or gun. The jury rendered a verdict that the deceased came to his death from a pistol shot fired by Joseph Hanson, a nephew of Mr. Moore, who was sleeping in the house, and that he was instigated thereto by Mrs. Moore. It has been ascertained that since their marriage his wife left him for eighteen months, and that their marriage had been an unhappy one. She testified that they spent the evening preceding the murder at Moore's mothers, on Union street, and returned home before eleven o'clock, and retired; whilst Mrs. Brichetto, who keeps a saloon on the corner of Union and Desoto streets, some six squares distant, testified that Moore was at her saloon at half-past eleven that night, and talked to her of his unfortunate marriage.

THE CAPITAL.

Crop Report for July.

WASHINGTON, July 28, 1873.

The July agricultural report, just sent to press, represents an improvement in winter wheat, but a decline in the prospects of spring wheat, on account of unseasonable weather in some quarters and insect enemies in others.

The average in corn is increased in West Virginia and Minnesota, and decreased in all other States, except Florida and Arkansas, where it remains the same as last year. Corn planting was everywhere retarded by the weather, and in many cases corn has been several times replanted. Unusual complaint of defective seeds is made in all parts of the country.

The condition of cotton has been previously given. The reports up to July 1st indicate the crop at 89.5 per cent. average, not including Virginia, where the culture is as yet mainly experimental.

The prospective yield of oats declined during June in New England, the Middle and Northwestern States, except Wisconsin. It was enhanced in all of the Gulf States except Mississippi.

Winter rye improved in Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, Maryland, North Carolina, Mississippi, Texas, Arkansas, Michigan, Illinois, and Iowa. It remained stationary in Georgia, and declined in all the other States. Spring rye was below the average in all the States, but the minimum (70) is found in California and the maximum in Nebraska.

Winter barley generally declined in the Southwest, where heavy rains prevailed.

The grass crop generally improved in the New England and Middle States. However, they were greatly shortened by the drouth.

The late winter told disastrously upon the fruit crop. The injury to apple trees was more extensive than was apparent at the last report. Vast numbers of peach trees were killed. The condition of grapes ranged from 61 in California to 127 in Nebraska, 100 representing the average.

The average of potatoes remained the same as last year, or increased in twenty-two States and decreased in all the others.

The Colorado beetle has extended its ravages eastward, being reported for the first time in several counties in New York. It was still devastating in the West, but farmers had learned in many counties how to destroy it effectually.

The maximum condition of the crop (111) was found in Georgia, and the minimum (76) in Delaware.

WASHINGTON, D. C., 8 P. M., July 28, 1873.

Probabilities for To-day.

On Tuesday for the Gulf States, rising barometer, southwest and northwest winds, somewhat lower temperature, and generally clear weather, except on the immediate coast, where local storms will probably centre.

For the south Atlantic States, southeasterly winds, veering to southwest, and generally cloudy weather.

For the middle Atlantic States, south and west winds, with partially cloudy, followed by clearing weather.

For New England and New York, falling barometer, southeast and southwest winds, higher temperature and local storms.

For the lower lake region, northeast and northwest winds, backing to southwest, with local storms and clearing weather.

For the upper lakes and Northwest, north and west winds, rising barometer, partly cloudy and clearing weather.

Weekly Weather Chronicle.

WAR DEPARTMENT, OFFICE OF THE CHIEF SIGNAL OFFICER, DIVISION OF TELEGRAMS AND REPORTS FOR THE BENEFIT OF COMMERCE AND AGRICULTURE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 26, 1873.

GENERAL SUMMARY FOR THE WEEK ENDING SATURDAY, JULY 26, 1873.

During the past week a low barometer has moved over Dakota, Minnesota, upper Michigan and the St. Lawrence valley, sending several minor disturbances to the middle Atlantic and southern New England coasts, and accompanied by severe thunder storms over the northern sections; a second over the northern portions of Dakota and Minnesota into Canada; a third from Dakota over Minnesota and upper Michigan into Canada.

The largest total amounts of rain during the past week have been reported from the following stations: Indianola, 2.11 inches; Wilmington, N. C., 2.16; Charleston, 2.21; Savannah, 2.27; Buffalo, 2.45; Montgomery, 3.14; Galveston, 3.31; New Orleans, 3.63; Lake City, 3.48; and Mobile, 7.82.

Saturday, 19.—Partly cloudy weather, with rain areas, was reported from the Southern and Middle States and the lake region, attended by cool, brisk westerly winds in latter section; continued cloudy and rainy weather in New England; generally clear, cool weather from Kentucky to Kansas, Nebraska, Dakota and Minnesota.

Sunday, 20.—Cloudy and rainy weather, with falling temperature, prevailed in the South Atlantic and Gulf States, heavy rains falling at night from central Alabama and northern Florida to the coast of South Carolina; cool, clearing or clear weather elsewhere east of the Rocky Mountains.

Monday, 21.—Cloudy and rainy weather continued in the South Atlantic and Gulf States, heavy rains falling on the central Gulf coast and at places from Georgia to North Carolina, followed by clearing weather at night in the latter section. Clear weather was reported from other sections east of the Rocky Mountains, with brisk to high southerly in Minnesota and eastern Dakota.

Tuesday, 22.—Cloudy weather prevailed from Louisiana to South Carolina, with continued heavy rains on the central and eastern Gulf coasts; partly cloudy weather and brisk southerly winds from southern Dakota to Lake Superior; clear weather elsewhere east of the Rocky Mountains.

Wednesday, 23.—Partly cloudy weather and rain-areas were reported from the Gulf States, Tennessee, Georgia and South Carolina; generally clear weather from all other sections, with brisk southerly to westerly winds from Lake Michigan to the lower lakes.

Thursday, 24.—Partly cloudy weather, with areas of rain, prevailed from Minnesota to upper Michigan, and in Tennessee and the Gulf States; generally clear weather elsewhere east of the Rocky Mountains.

Friday, 25.—Partly cloudy weather, with rain-areas, continued in the Gulf States, heavy rain falling on the eastern coast of Texas. Increasing cloudiness, brisk southwesterly winds, rain areas and thunder storms were reported from Indiana, the lower lake region and St. Lawrence valley, heavy rains falling at night in western New York; clear or partly cloudy weather from all other sections.

Saturday, 26.—The morning reports show prevailing cloudiness, with areas of rain, in the Southwest and from the Ohio valley to the lower lake region; generally clear weather elsewhere east of the Rocky Mountains.

RIVERS.

During the past week the Red river has fallen steadily at Shreveport. The Missouri has also fallen slightly. The Mississippi has risen slightly at New Orleans, but fallen fourteen inches at St. Paul, thirty at Davenport, forty-three at Keokuk, twenty-nine at St. Louis, six feet at Memphis, five and a half at Cairo, and nine inches at Vicksburg. The Cumberland at Nashville has fallen ten inches. The Ohio is twenty-one inches higher at Cincinnati and seven at Louisville, but falling, and thirty-four lower at Pittsburgh that it was on the 18th.

ALBERT J. MYER,
Brig. Gen. (Bv't. Ass'g'd) and Chief Signal Officer, U. S. A.

ST. LOUIS.

Convention of German Teachers.

ST. LOUIS, July 28.—The annual convention of German teachers of the United States met here to-day, but no business of importance was transacted. Over one hundred teachers from abroad, mainly from large Eastern cities, are present. The compulsory instruction of the German language in the schools will be one of the questions for discussion.

FIRES.

New York.

NEW YORK, July 28.—A fire in the stables of the Broadway and Twenty-third Street Car Company caused a loss to the Company of $80,000—$50,000 on the building and $30,000 on the stock; insurance, $75,000. The Fifth Regiment, which occupied the upper floor of the building as an armory, loses $30,000. No insurance.

Religious Liberty in Persia.

NEW YORK, July 28.—London papers of the 16th give the reply of the Shah to an address sent him on the subject of religious liberty in Persia. He says, in substance, that toleration is already universal in Persia, no one, whether Christian or Jew or Parsee being subjected to persecution on account of his religion. He will give the subject his best attention on his return to Persia, and take care that justice shall be shown all, without distinction of class or creed.

NEW YORK.

Reduction in Freight Tariff to the West—South Carolinians Interceding with the President for the Pardon of Ku-Klux Prisoners—Suit Against the Attorney of an Estate.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1873.

Reduction in Freight Tariff.

The managers of trunk lines to the west have made the following reductions in freight charges on first-class merchandise, which includes boots and shoes, clothing, etc: New York to Chicago, per hundred weight, 75 cents, formerly $1; Cleveland, 49 cents, formerly 85 cents; Cincinnati, 70 cents, formerly 90 cents; St. Louis, 97 cents, formerly $1.28; Louisville, 86 cents, formerly $1.23; Memphis, $1.35, formerly $1.62. The following are the rates from Lake Erie ports westward: To Cleveland, Toledo and Detroit, 45 cents; to Chicago, Milwaukee and Green Bay, 51 cents.

Suit Against the Attorney of an Estate.

Frederick A. Lane, formerly counsel of the Erie Railway Company, has been sued in the Supreme Court by Mrs. May C. Lucy Goodridge, administratrix of Ezra R. Goodridge, for an account. The case came up this morning before Justice Pratt on a motion to appoint a receiver. The allegations are that Lane expended some $69,000 collected by him as such attorney in paying dividends to certain creditors of the estate, of which amount he paid himself some $57,000 as a dividend upon two judgments of $150,000 obtained by Lane himself against her without her knowledge. Lane denies any charges of fraudulent acts. The decision was reserved.

Interceding for Ku-Klux Prisoners.

General J. B. Kershaw, W. D. Porter and R. M. Sims, a committee of South Carolinians, have had a conference with President Grant at Long Branch, the purpose of which was the intercession for Ku Klux prisoners of South Carolina. The President said he was desirous of pursuing a very liberal policy towards all convicts, except those guilty of violent crimes, and towards all accused except those charged and probably guilty of similar crimes. It is understood the President will address a letter of instruction immediately to Attorney General Williams in pursuance of these understandings.

Died from His Wounds.

Michael Tunney, stabbed a week ago by Peter McKenna, died to-day. McKenna was arrested.

HOPEDALE, O.

Atlantic and Southeastern Railroad.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

HOPEDALE, OHIO, July 28, 1873.

The engineers surveying the line for the Atlantic and Southeastern Railroad, from the line located for the Wheeling and Lake Erie, to an intersection with the surveys made for the old Southwestern road, finished their work on Saturday. That there is a practicable route is fully demonstrated. The line examined from Amsterdam to Hopedale is less than eleven miles.

THE CHOLERA.

Indianapolis.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 28.—Two additional deaths from cholera are reported by the Board of Health to-day. But seven deaths in all have thus far occurred, five of which were the children of one family.

Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, July 28.—The cholera is prevailing on plantations below here to a considerable extent. Eleven deaths occurred since Friday on one plantation. It has not reached the city.

KANSAS.

The York Case.

TOPEKA, July 28.—John Q. Page, who began an action in the District Court of this county to recover $7,000 paid into the Kansas Legislature by A. M. York, dismissed the case to-day, paying all the costs. The case was to recover money now in the hands of the State Treasurer, on the grounds set forth by Pomeroy in his defence, that the money was given by Pomeroy to York, to be given to Page to aid in the establishment of a bank at Independence.

BRIEF TELEGRAMS.

—President Grant was in New York yesterday.

—Clouds of grasshoppers are swarming over portions of Iowa.

—There were copious rains in the Miami valley on Monday.

—The Cincinnati Zoological Society yesterday elected nine directors, with James Longworth as President.

—Madame Augustine Frazer, residing in Cincinnati, has been sentenced to five years in the penitentiary for procuring an abortion.

—The corner-stone of the Second Presbyterian church of Cincinnati was laid yesterday. It will be one of the finest churches in the West.

—J. H. Mode, a well-known lumber dealer of New Orleans, was thrown from his buggy on Sunday, and died on Monday from the injuries received.

—A decree has been promulgated at Rio Janeiro declaring Protestant marriages indissoluble unless declared otherwise by competent legal tribunals.

—A dispatch from Gibson, Knox county, Ill., announces that the last rail connecting the Streater and Windsor division of the Chicago & Paducah Railroad was laid on Saturday morning, making one hundred and twenty-eight miles of road completed south of Streator.

—The London Times of the 16th says Mrs. Clive, the authoress, was writing in her boudoir, on the evening of the 11th inst., when a spark flew from the fire and ignited her dress. Before assistance could arrive, the unfortunate lady, who for years had been a confirmed invalid, was burnt most terribly. She died on the following morning.

—While E. B. Anderson, a brakeman on the St. Louis, Kansas City & Northern railroad, was passing through the yard of the company in St. Louis, Monday morning, he met Thomas Rucker, private watchman of the yard, and began to abuse him. Rucker remonstrated with him, whereupon Anderson raised a lantern to strike Rucker, when the latter struck him a blow with his fist under his left ear, from the effects of which he died soon after. Rucker gave himself up.

UTAH.

The Suit of Brigham Young's Seventeenth Wife.

SALT LAKE, July 28.—The complaint and affidavits in the case of Ann Eliza Webb, seventeenth wife of Brigham Young, were filed today in the Clerk's office of the Third District Court. The complainant sues for two hundred thousand dollars damages alimony, pending the suit one thousand dollars per month, and twenty thousand for counsel fees. The case will be argued probably before Judge Emerson, Judge McKean being absent for his health, on the 5th of August, on the preliminary points. Other suits of like nature will be taken up soon.

Attempted Murder and Highway Robbery.

MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., July 28.—J. J. Early, of Lancaster, Pa., was found this morning about two miles from this place with his throat cut almost from ear to ear. He stated that he had been waylaid and robbed by three colored men. Slight hopes are entertained of his recovery.

Ought Girls to Court?

We have often thought (for editors never speak from experience) that a young fellow must have a good stock of assurance—nay, of downright impudence—to go through the ticklish, terrible, torturing ordeal of a regular courtship. He has not only to run the gauntlet of sneering young gentlemen, but also the gauntlet of gossiping young ladies; to be talked of, and to be the mark of watchful observations, for the whole neighborhood in which his fair one resides. Nor is this all. If his addresses are only acceptable to one member of the family, and that member the depository of the gardened-up love of a whole life, he is sure to meet the savage glances of savage brothers, and is just as sure to encounter other equally flattering manifestations of paternal, maternal, or fraternal opposition. Now this is all wrong. The exchanges should be more equalized; and some are sanguine enough to believe that the day is not far distant when they will be equalized; when we shall hear of young ladies paying their addresses to young gentlemen, visiting them nightly at their houses; inviting them to ride, to dance, to sing, to eat ice cream, and as soon as matters are brought to an interesting crisis, "popping" the question itself. Ah! what a delightful thing it would be, flurriedly waiting in your mother's parlor, carefully brushed and strapped to be courted. To be tenderly stared at night after night, by girl after girl; to have one's brown, rough hand occasionally squeezed, and to have one's waist delicately encompassed (of course only after the "engagement") by some of the most delicately tapering arms in the world!

England's Income.

The revenue returns of England for the year ending with June 30th last show a total income from all sources of $379,481,885, as compared with $381,330,100 for the preceding year. There is a decrease of not quite two millions, the nearly equal sums received for the two years showing the steadiness of the English revenue. During the last year several reductions of taxation went into effect, so that our English brethren have a similar satisfaction with ourselves on knowing that the revenues of both countries keep up, notwithstanding reduced taxation. The chief sources of the English revenue for the past year were nearly 105 millions of dollars from customs, 136 millions from excise duties, 50 millions from the sales of stamps, 35 millions from the property and income tax, 12 millions from the land tax and house duty, 24 millions from the post-office surplus, and nearly five millions from the earnings of the postal telegraphs. During the last year the excise, stamps and land taxes yielded a considerable increase over the preceding year, the decrease being mainly in the property and income tax, post-office and telegraph service.

THE Philological Convention concluded its sittings at Easton, Pa., on Monday, and adjourned to meet July 14th, 1874, at Hartford, Conn. The proceedings were full of marked interest, and cannot fail to have a pronounced effect upon the study of philology in our colleges. The paper by Professor Shute on "The more extensive Study of the English Language in our College Courses," and Professor March's on "The Method of Study of Comparative Philology in a College Course," seem to have created the most profound sensation of the many essays read during the session. If they have any effect in turning the attention of our colleges to the study of the English tongue, now so strangely and unaccountably neglected in these institutions of learning, it will be a source of no small gratification, and a consummation upon which they may be warmly congratulated.

PENNSYLVANIA
MILITARY ACADEMY,
Chester, Delaware County, Pa.
FOR BOARDERS ONLY.

The twelfth annual session commences
WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10th.

The buildings, which are admirably located, have been erected at a cost of over one hundred thousand dollars. The private rooms each, for the occupancy of two Cadets, are supplied with gas, heated by steam, and well ventilated. There is an abundant supply of the pure spring water in the wash and bath room, and upon every corridor of the Academy. The apparatus for illustration is extensive and complete. The instruction is imparted by West Point graduates and other competent Professors, and is thorough and practical. Cadets are graduated either in Civil or Mechanical Engineering, are fitted for any class in college, or may here complete a Collegiate course and receive their degree. Cadets in the English course are carefully trained to think and to comprehend thoroughly their respective branches of study. Careful attention is given to the morals and manners of Cadets, and a discipline strict but judicious is exercised over them.

Circulars may be obtained of CHARLES H. PAULSON, Esq., No. 76 Wood street, Pittsburgh, Pa., or of COL. THEO. HYATT, P. M. A.

Col. Hyatt will be at the Monongahela House, in Pittsburgh, on WEDNESDAY, the 30th inst., at 10 A. M., and will be happy to see patrons of the Academy or others on official business. jy28:r89

A LETTER has been brought to light in Washington, which shows that General Scott thought it to be the policy of Polk's administration to prevent himself and other Whig generals from receiving the credit that fairly belonged to them for their services in the Mexican war. Not at all unlikely.

AFFAIRS in Louisiana are improving. The interest on the State debt will be paid on the first of August, and promptly hereafter. New Orleans has paid more than a million of dollars of taxes, and a spirit of order and peace is obtaining. We are gratified that such a statement can be made. The collisions and political turmoils in Louisiana only injured that State, and now that they are over, we are confident prosperity will again be enjoyed.

THERE seems to be a spice of vindictiveness in the Solicitor of Manitoba, who has in charge the prosecution of the Americans accused of seeking to entrap Lord Gordon. Bail is refused them, and every privilege usually accorded to prisoners is denied, and they are treated with harsh severity. This is peculiarly unfair, as the only thing needed, is to have the prisoners at hand when needed. This might be easily accomplished by demanding sufficient bail.

THE departure of the Tigress from St. John's to Disco, on her way to search for the missing Polaris, was made the occasion of considerable enthusiasm by the people of St. John's. The search for the Polaris is in itself a popular event, particularly in view of the humanitarian aspects of the case. We simply know that the Polaris, when last seen, was in a perilous condition,—having just escaped from an ice crush, which it is believed, left her in a leaky and possibly sinking condition. She has on board the details of several reports,—and thus the importance of her rescue.

THE FOLLOWING contains the opinion of the Dispatch as to the integrity of the members of Allegheny Councils: "A donation of a box of Wheeling stogies would have more weight in the legislative chambers of Allegheny, should any resolution on outside tobacco ever be pushed to a vote, than six months' discussion of the subject in the newspapers." We believe twenty cents a line, or, in important cases, $200, is the Dispatch's price. The morality or immorality of the course to be taken is not considered. A paper that will decry the credit of the city in which it is published, and seek to add two millions to its debt, is ready for anything.

A MOVEMENT has been started in Massachusetts, looking to the defeat of what is called the "Butler Raid," on the Governorship. A circular, signed by Judge Hoar, and a large number of prominent Republicans, resulted in a Convention on Saturday which declared against Butler, the salary grab, and all connected therewith. It now seems probable that some Republican of high character and good standing will be put in nomination, or else, the element opposed to Butler will fuse on Charles Francis Adams, and secure his election. The primary effort, however, will be to defeat Butler in the regular Convention,—a course which is perfectly legitimate. The struggle will at once become intense, with much doubt as to the final result.

IF THE language credited to King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, to the French Minister be correct, he not only has a clear appreciation of his situation, but is determined not to yield Italian unity at the demand of the clerical party. He objects to the course of the ecclesiastics in France, and intimates that unless they are repressed, he will join Germany, and in case of war between France and Germany, will send an army corps to the French frontier. The report that the Pope is about to formally excommunicate him, seems to have no terrors for the Italian King. He evidently does fear, to some extent, what may be termed the political influence of the priesthood. It is this he is fighting. To do it effectually, he insists that the French Government shall control the rabid element in its midst.

WE CONGRATULATE the Post on the handsome appearance it presents in its new dress of type. Excellent taste has been displayed in the selections made, and the entire mechanical appearance of the paper is greatly improved. It also affords us gratification to know that our cotemporary is prospering in business, and in an enlarging mood, so far as its weekly is concerned. We naturally differ from the Post in our political views, and are free-spoken in such differences, and our neighbor is the same in reply; but we confess to a lurking good will toward our politically wrong-headed friend, for the good temper and general candor it displays. We like candid discussion, and this the Post generally gives, and so, in all good feeling, we congratulate its improved appearance, and in all but politics, wish it well.

WE have upon us a new development of the beautiful management which characterized the closing days of Democratic administration in the National Government. Fort Snelling was a government reservation on the Mississippi River, a few miles above St. Paul. In 1856 a man named Steele, for himself and a combination of speculators, offered the government $110,000 for the seven thousand acres of land, and the buildings. His offer was rejected. In 1857 the offer to purchase was renewed, and the bid was reduced to $90,000. John B. Floyd had then just come into office, and he accepted the offer. The money was to be paid, $30,000 down and the remainder in two or three years without interest, and no title could pass until the whole amount was paid. The first payment was made, when the attention of Congress was called to the affair, a committee investigated it and denounced it as a fraud upon the government, the property being worth at least half a million dollars, and many had estimated it worth nearly one million. The speculators who had purchased it showed their estimate of the bargain by offering to sell one-twenty-seventh of the land for $25,000, or at the rate of $675,000 for the whole, not including the buildings. Nothwithstanding these facts and the action of Congress, and in the face of the requirement that the whole of the money should be paid before the title passed, Floyd gave Steele and his party full possession and title in 1858. Steele attempted to charge the government $162,000 for the use of this property for recruiting purposes during the war, but Secretary Stanton refused to pay it. Now the Government is under the necessity of purchasing a portion of the land for recruiting service, and Steele has sold one-half of the land for $300,000. An attempt is made to hold the present administration responsible for recognizing the title. It ought to be investigated, and we hope will be. But the great wrong is in the original conveyance of the property by Floyd.

AS THE Dispatch practically begs the question, on the bond discussion, it will seem harsh to deal farther with it. It has not the grace to acknowledge its falsehoods to which we invited attention, which does not surprise us. It imagines it makes a point by referring to the conditions on which the five per cent. bonds were marketed. We stated the case more fairly than does the Dispatch, when we stated that they were issued on terms "equitable to all." If there was no difference whatever between the four and five per cent. bonds, perhaps the Dispatch can explain why the four per cents. were refused and the five per cents. accepted? The simple truth is, the five per cents. were more valuable, and by disposing of them on the general market, larger sums could be realized. Business men are not apt to express a preference, where no preference exists. That the Ledger should tickle the Dispatch is not surprising. It wants to break the compact between the city and the compromise bondholders, and saddle this city with two millions extra debt. To do this, it decries the city's credit. The Dispatch joins it in its work of depreciation and attempted robbery. Why should the two not tickle each other? There is said to be honor of this kind among thieves. As to Drexel, we referred to him, on what we supposed good authority, to account for the animus of the Ledger. The Ledger denied, and that was all there was of it. Of course the Dispatch had not sense enough to know this. We have stated our views quite fully. They are fully endorsed by every honest man in the city who understands the affair. The Finance Committee, in Councils, is made up, from year to year, of our best and truest business men. A few changes are made in it yearly, and the new men are apt to wonder why the $50,000 bondholders are not paid; but when the subject has been explained, they have universally refused to pay, and as uniformly determined to stand by the city's agreement. This is a better test of what our best men do think of the affair than a scalawag letter to the Ledger is.

GROESBECK'S LETTER.

Ordinarily, a letter declining a nomination not officially tendered, is hardly worth a comment; but W. S. Groesbeck is a gentleman of sufficient character and ability to be looked up to by the better element among the Democracy, and shrewd enough not to accept the empty honor of a forlorn nomination. This gentleman has given utterance to criticism covering three particular points,—the status of the Democratic party, negro suffrage, and the reforms necessary to perpetuate Democracy. His views of the present situation of the party are tinged with solemnity befitting an obituary. "Blundering constantly during the last ten years, and shattered by many defeats, it surrendered finally at the last presidential election." This is the terse, strong statement, by a Democrat, of an undoubted fact. The question very naturally arises, why, if shattered and surrendered, the party does not quietly give up the ghost. Why persist in trying to live? The Whigs when they reached this point, died decently,—and a new party, with Radical ideas, and a moral purpose, sprang into being and victory. Are these principles afloat, unaccepted by the Republican party, which may be seized upon, and the people rallied to effort and victory?

Mr. Groesbeck meets this idea in two forms. He deplores negro suffrage, yet admits its permanency. It, in his view, "is the bloody consummation of a great war, and nothing short of war can undo it in our day." He softens this harsh expression with the statement that he relies for good voting as much on the heart as on the head. Still, he is evidently averse to the freedmen being elevated into citizenship. To him it was nothing that at the close of the war, this long afflicted class had no power at hand to resist the encroachments and abuses of their late masters. The haste in bestowing suffrage upon them grew out of this fact. There was, also, a sense of justice involved. From the time permission was given, colored men enlisted and bravely fought in our regiments and armies. The overthrow of slavery was partially attributable to their efforts. They were loyal to the Union, even in slavery. Hence, for their protection, and as a reward for their services, the badge of citizenship, the ballot, was placed in their hands. It will not commend the new Democracy, that the justice of this should be denied.

The new party of the future he would label Liberal Democracy,—a name that savors of the joint product of the Cincinnati and Baltimore Conventions. The first element of this mongrel, he insists, must be opposition to monopolies,—a phrase that is tolerably indefinite, as used and defined. In general terms, he pronounces them an "outrage on the people," which is well enough, but so generally believed in that it cannot be made to stand as an element of party faith. Free trade is the next item, and this he wants pure and simple. "Strict construction of the Constitution" is the third and last of his moral propositions. How, in all this, he differs from an old time Democrat is more than we can see. The prejudices and doctrines of slavery's palmiest days are thus enunciated. Never were there such constitutionalists as those pro-slaveryites, who brought on the war. The trouble is, they always interpreted it to suit their views. The Republicans make less palaver over the Constitution, but really interpret it fairly,—the Democrats, in the older time, were always prating over it, and interpreting it in the interest of slavery, an institution that contravened the very spirit of the instrument. We really cannot see in what particular Mr. Groesbeck proposes to change this shattered and surrendered Democracy.

It is claimed that one of the reasons which induced Jefferson, when urged to accept the Presidential nomination for a third term, to decline, was that there was too little opposition to his party for the general good of the country. We do not desire the entire people to come over to the Republican party, and hence we really hope that some tangible reasons for perpetuating the Democracy will be conjured up. We have no fear that the Republican party will be driven from power; we do believe a moderate majority is better for any party. But if no better reasons for the existence of the Democracy can be given than those offered by Mr. Groesbeck, we eventually hope the corpse will lie still in its grave.

POLITICAL NOTES.

CONGRESSMAN ELLIOTT, of South Carolina, (colored), is said to be a prominent candidate for the Governorship.

THE expenses of the Democratic-Liberal campaign in Hamilton county, Ohio, last fall, are reported at $6,170.81.

GOVERNOR PARKER, of New Jersey, finds favor as a Presidential candidate in the eyes of the Doylestown Democrat.

ATTEMPTS to form Granges of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry among the farmers of New England have proved almost total failures. Only one grange is said to have been formed, and that is in Greenfield, Mass.

LATER advices from Minnesota ridicule the assertion that Washburn was defeated in the Republican Convention by fraud, and declare that there will be no bolt from Davis's nomination. There is a project on foot to have him nominated by the Democrats and Grangers, and thus make his election unanimous.

THE Ohio Republicans will open their campaign at Athens, Aug. 23, when speeches will be made by Governor Noyes and Senator Morton. Governor Noyes has published a card, saying no man has been asked by him to use his influence toward securing a Legislature in favor of him (Noyes) for United States Senator. He expresses himself in favor of an unpledged Legislature.

THE Constitutional Convention of New Jersey, has adjourned until the 7th of October. The principal amendments thus far submitted are the following: To make a member of the Legislature ineligible who accepts free railroad tickets; that members shall receive but $800 per annum; that no Judge of a court shall ride free or hold railroad stock; that capital punishment shall be abolished and imprisonment for life substituted, the pardoning power being disallowed; that the Court of Chancery shall be abolished; that no man shall hold an office who shall have influenced a caucus by money or otherwise; that any man who has been a defaulter to the State or General Government shall be deprived of the right of voting; and that a man shall be entitled to vote after sixty days' residence in a county. The influence of the present farmers' anti-railroad movement is clearly traceable in many of these radical changes which have been proposed.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

LONDON has 285 newspapers, of which 17 are dailies.

THERE are 38,688 pupils in the Boston public schools. They have 1,001 teachers.

THE counsel for Carl Vogt has received a letter from the Secretary of State informing him that the case of his client was still under consideration.

A WARM spring on the bank of a lake, which was glowingly described by a Peoria reporter, proved to be the mouth of a waste pipe from a neighboring brewery.

THE Peruvian Government has commenced suits against several dealers in guano in New York city, who are said to adulterate that article and sell it as genuine.

THE assassination of Frank Moore, in Memphis on Sunday, is still shrouded in mystery and excites much interest, but the police are still unable throw any light upon the subject.

THE Attorney General has recommended that pardons be issued to Felix Dover, Stephen Spawn, Ewan Murphy and Wm. Scruggs, convicted in North and South Carolina of Ku Klux outrages.

THE California mines are queer places. A Golden State reporter heard "the growl of a bear, the howl of a wolf, the voice of prayer, the cry of a child and the clash of bowie knives" from one gulch.

WM. STORM, bar keeper on the steamer Phil. Allen, fell from his window in the second story of Ayer's block, Memphis, on Sunday night, and was instantly killed. It is supposed he fell asleep while sitting in the window.

THE Milwaukee and Fond Du Lac Air Line road was completed on Saturday. This road forms the connecting link between the C. & N. W. R. Railroad at Fond Du Lac and Milwaukee, and most of the trains will run over this route to Chicago, instead of via Janesville and Darius.

A FEW of the one hundred and fifty young Russian women who were driven from Zudrich, by order of the Czar, while pursuing their medical studies in that city, have arrived in New York, nearly moneyless, and wanting something to do. They are described as accomplished women.

A WOMAN seventy-seven years old, at Ripley, Miss., walked five and a half miles to market, lately "carrying on her back seven turkey gobblers, twenty-two chickens, twenty-four dozen eggs, and six pounds of butter," and she does that sort of thing regularly. How the express companies must love her!

A GALENA GIRL at the Pavillion circus, some time ago, who was looking at a clown whirling his hat with a stick, remarked to her young man that she "used to do that." The young man was looking at a contortionist in another part of the arena, who had his legs tied around his neck, and an explanation was necessary.

AT Rogersville, Ohio, on Saturday night, during the trial of a man calling himself Jeff. Davis, for committing rape on a nine year-old girl, the lights in the room were put out, the prisoner dragged out of doors and shot twice with revolvers, and then dragged by the heels two squares and hung to a tree till dead.

THE Brooklyn Trust Company, through the receiver, makes a statement of the assets and liabilities of the concern, by which it appears that the act of suspension was not caused by immediate pecuniary embarrassment. The statement gives a surplus of over one hundred thousand dollars above all liabilities.

A SOFT-HEADED fellow wrote his name with a diamond on a Saratoga window. A miss wrote under:

> When I see a looney's name
> Written upon a glass,

> And his father owns an ass.

AN observant lady says she was never so much inclined to laugh in church as on a recent Sunday, when, walking down the broad aisle after service, she saw that every woman ahead of her was using her left hand in arranging that portion of her dress adorning her back, and before she was aware of it found herself similarly employed.

THOSE Texas papers are rapidly working themselves up to white heat. The Galveston News starts at the report that General Escobedo is approaching the border, and says that should "this malicious fool venture to cross his ragamuffins into our territory, he might discover the difference between a white man and a lop-eared Indian Mongrel."

WHILE the German government has decided not to break off all intercourse with the Vatican forever, it is semi-officially reported that no Embassador will be sent thither during the life of Pius IX. The relations between Church and State in Germany are to be regulated by an understanding between the Ministry and Parliament, and not by a concordat with Rome.

PATSY MCLAUGHLIN and Jim Kehoe met at Weehawken, New Jersey, on Sunday morning, to engage in a prize fight, but were prevented by the Sheriff of the county, and a cry of police being raised, the principals and supporters scampered off. On the way to the battle-ground, one party in a sail-boat had a fight, capsizing the boat, and drowning two men.

THE conditions necessary for the formation of azurite, or blue carbonate of copper, has been carefully studied by Dr. Wibel, of Hamburg. His experiments show that azurite is formed from malachite, or the green carbonate, by abstraction of water and addition of carbonic acid; a change which may be effected at ordinary temperatures by the action of carbonic acid in the presence of water-abstracting agents.

CHARLES, the Sachem, and A. W. Miller, Commissioner of the Stackbridge and Munze Indian Nation, publish an affidavit, exhonorating Senator Howe from the charges preferred by certain parties in relation to the sale of the pine lands belonging to the Nation. The affidavit alleges that there has been no dissatisfaction expressed in regard to the appraisement or the manner in which the sale was conducted, or the prices obtained, and pays the Senator a handsome tribute for his integrity towards their people.

A BAND of Ku-Klux raided on the farm of Mrs. Mason Brown, mother of B. Gratz Brown, in Owen county, Ky., on Friday night, when they killed Louis Wilson, colored, burned his house down and damaged other farm property. The farm contained large growing crops of corn and tobacco, which it will be difficult to harvest in the absence of the labor driven off by the Ku-Klux. Other farms were visited by them and the owners warned against employing negroes as workmen. It is said the Ku Klux came from Henry county.

A FARMER living about eight miles east of Jerseyville, Ill., had five horses in the stalls in the barn, and while currying the fourth horse the lightning struck a middle post in the barn, and ran along the manger by the horses' heads, killing four out of five. It killed the one he was currying, and knocked down another which was eating off the barn floor. The horse he was curryiod fell on him, bruising him severely, the lightning also producing a severe shock on him. The hay in the barn above the horses was fired, but the fire was extinguished without doing much damage.

IT WAS not very wise in a young Oregon lady to discard her affianced because he quarreled with a toll-gate keeper about sixpence. Girls should know by this time that men who are saving of sixpences do not by any means make bad husbands. How could the Oregon damsel be sure that the lover was not keeping the sixpence that he might buy with it a "bunch of blue ribbon to tie up her bonny brown hair?" If beauty and grace will be so expensive, isn't it the height of ingratitude to snub men for saving? The lady surely didn't want her gallant to be in love with the toll keeper.

THE crop reports from Arkansas are very encouraging, several rains during the past ten days having brought out both the corn and cotton, though in the region of Jacksonport rain is very much needed. The reports from Mississippi are conflicting in regard to the cotton crop, but the corn crop will not yield more than half a crop, owing to the drouth; while in the neighborhood of Okatano, Koscinsko and Brandon, both cotton and corn will make a poor yield, and in addition to the drouth the worms have appeared. In west Tennessee the corn will only yield half a crop, but the cotton prospect is fair.

AN official statement of the operations of this London mint gives many highly interesting details, which show the extraordinary and growing demand for gold, silver and copper coins. Within twelve months the mint has worked off no less than 119 tons of gold, 137 tons of silver and 114 tons of copper, out of which a total of 52,841,048 pieces were coined. The value of the gold coined amounted to £15,000,000, that of the silver £1,250,000, and that of the copper £50,000. How greatly the mint has lately been in demand appears from the fact that prior to 1871 only £5,000,000 pieces were coined on an average.

CARL VOGT, saved from surrender to the Prussian Government by the decision of Attorney General Williams, emphatically denies that he is the murderer of Chevalier De Bianco, and explains his possession of the bank notes and other securities which the Chevalier's relatives claim, by saying that he received them from a woman known as Mrs. Vogt, who bought them in London from a German. This woman is now earning a livelihood by scrubbing law offices in New York city. While the lawyers were fighting for him she drew a thousand dollars' worth of securities, which she handed over to them after Vogt's arrest, to pay the expenses of his defense.

A MAN out in Montana, a short time ago, squatted on another person's land and built a small frame shanty. When requested to remove he positively refused to do so; so, one night, a squad of men came around after the squatter and his wife were asleep, and lifting the whole concern, shanty and all, with deliberate care carried it to the river and set it on a small raft. Then they pushed the raft out into the stream and let her go. When the squatter got up in the morning to go out, he was surprised to find himself about sixty miles down the stream, and making good time in a nine knot current. This is all we shall say about that man. It would be extremely improper to report his remarks in full in this paper.

"Max Adler" on Breaking Dishes.

We are glad to learn that the Emperor of China has issued a decree declaring that if the chief officer of his household handles dishes so carelessly as to break them, he shall be killed. We say we are glad of this, because we hope to have the same regulation put into effect in this country. If it is, about two thousand hired girls will be executed every week, and we reasonably hope that the destruction of crockery will be checked. We have stopped it temporarily in our house by having a tea set made of wrought iron and painted white. When a new hired girl comes, she drops the coffee pot upon the floor. Finding with amazement that it does not break, she thumps it with a flat-iron and drops bricks on it, and goes out and borrows a sledge hammer and whacks it; and then, perceiving that it is as good as ever, she sits down in front of the coffee-pot and bursts into tears. Then she gives warning, loads up with sugar and beef and butter for her sick aunt, embezzles three or four hemstitched handkerchiefs, and any old pillow cases that are laying around, and starts for the nearest intelligence office. We wouldn't take a million dollars for that tea-set.

PERSONAL.

MORTON MCMICHAEL, of the Philadelphia North American, is comfortably domiciliated in a neat cottage at Cape Island.

CHAPLAIN LUDWIG and I. I. Herrick, officers of the National Soldiers' Asylum at Milwaukee, who have been guilty of improper practices, have been removed.

LAURA KEENE emphatically denies that she is dying of consumption. She is merely recuperating at the sea-shore, and will play again the coming season as usual.

GENERAL LE FEVER, of Michigan, now at Saratoga, is reported betrothed to Miss Snow. It is the first instance noted where snow is recommended for the fever.

GEORGE T. BENEDICT, the former Superintendent of the New London Northern Railroad, has accepted the Superintendency of the Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland Railroad.

MR. WM. H. WHALLEY, member of Parliament for Peterborough, and prominent as a friend of the Tichborne claimant, will soon proceed to the United States for the purpose of soliciting subscriptions to enable the claimant to defray the expenses incurred in his trial.

DR. MARY WALKER is getting her name into the papers too much. It is a pity the Shah of Persia cannot be introduced to her before his return to his native land. He might be persuaded to take her to the far East with the other young ladies with whom he has become enamored.

PROF. WILLIAM ELDER, formerly President of Arcadia College, New Brunswick, and recently associated with Professor Cook, of Harvard University, has been elected to the chair of Chemistry and Natural History in Colby University, Maine, recently vacated by Professor Hamlin.

THE Wisconsin State Journal reprints a rumor that Judge Miller will soon resign from the Supreme Court. From the frequent allusions to this rumor in our Western exchanges we are inclined to the belief that it is not altogether untrue. The State Journal says: "Judge Miller is nearly seventy years of age, and is pretty well preserved for a gentleman of his years and service."

WHEN the Czarowitch recently reached the Windsor station, on his way to visit Queen Victoria, he was angered by the absence of festival decorations there. Baron Brunow sharply asked of the railroad officials the reason therefor, but was calmed by the assurance that the Prince's party were not expected as early as they had arrived. Really, however, no decoration had been intended, and the bunting shown to the Baron was being prepared for the visit of the Shah.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Boston Globe thus refers to Dr. Brown-Sequard, one of the scientists who will assist Professor Agassiz in his Natural History Academy at Penikese: "Many little things known to him are interesting and rather romantic. He has no equal in treating diseases of the nervous system; yet one rarely meets with a man so nervous as he himself is. His wife was a Miss Carlisle, of Cincinnati, with whom he became acquainted some years ago in Paris, while attending her professionally during a severe illness. Dr. Brown-Sequard receives for a single visit $50, and he is unable to meet the demands on his time."

JOHN JANKIN'S SERMON.

The minister said last night, says he,
"Don't be afraid of givin';
If your life ain't nothin' to other folks,
Why, what's the use o' livin'?"
And that's what I say to wife, says I,
There's Brown, the mis'rable sinner,
He'd sooner a beggar would starve than give
A cent toward buyin' a dinner.

I tell you our minister's prime, he is,
But I couldn't quite determine,
When I heard him a-givin' it right and left,
Just who was hit by his sermon.
Of course there couldn't be no mistake
When he talked of long-winded prayin',
For Peters and Johnson they sot and scowled
At every word he was sayin'.

And the minister he went on to say,
"There's various kinds o' cheatin',
And religion's as good for every day
As it is to bring to meetin'.
I don't think much of a man that gives
The L'rd Amens at my preachin',
And spends his time the followin' week
In cheating and overreachin'."

I guess that dose was bitter enough
For a man like Jones to swaller;
But I noticed he didn't open his mouth,
Not once, after that to holler.
Hurrah, says I, for the minister—
Of course I said it quiet—
Give us some more of this open talk:
It's very refreshing diet.

The minister hit 'em every time;
And when he spoke of fashion,
And a rigging out in bows and things,
As woman's rulin' passion,
And a-comin' to church to see the style;
I couldn't help a-winkin'
And a-nudgin' my wife, and, says I, "That's you,"
And I guess it sot her thinkin'.

Says I to myself, that sermon's pat,
But man is a queer creation;
And I'm much afraid that most o' the folks
Won't take the application.
Now if he had said a word about
My personal mode o' sinnin',
I'd have gone to work to right myself,
And not set here a-grinnin'.

Just then the minister says, says he,
"And now I've come to the fellers
Who've lost this shower by usin' their friends
As sort o' moral umbrellas.
Go home," says he, "and find your faults,
Instead of huntin' your brothers';
Go home," he says, "and ware the coats
You've tried to fit for others."

My wife she nudged, and Brown he winked,
And there was lots o' smilin',
And lots o' lookin' at our pew;
It sot my blood a-bilin'.
Says I to myself, our minister
Is gittin' a little bitter;
I'll tell him when meetin's out, that I
Ain't at all that kind of a critter.

GARLIC.

How a Wife Kept Her Husband Home.

A gentleman of our acquaintance, whose profession necessarily keeps him away from his room until midnight on every week day, is inclined to absent himself on Sundays, when he joins boon companions in various kinds of amusements, simply because on such occasions he is free from fulfilling duties toward his employers. During the warm season he is greatly given to sailing and fishing, and so sure as Sunday comes just so sure is he to visit Lake Pontchartrain to relieve himself from daily cares by indulging in favorite pastime. One Sunday recently, the wife, a kind hearted, domestic body, full of love for her husband, home and children, succeeded in securing her husband company for that one day. Being aware that he was exceedingly fond of garlic in his food, she bade the cook to make an early dinner and spice the roast thoroughly with that delectable vegetable. Before dinner was announced the husband scented the (to him) sweet perfume, and fixed his mouth and appetite for a good square meal, for without knowing it he fell into the trap and was prettily caught. He ate his fill, thinking how very pleasant it was to leisurely dine with his loved ones at home. Dinner over, coffee and a smoke indulged in, the husband thought of his promise to join some lively friends in a sail on the lake, and began to dress, but suddenly the aroma of garlic made him remember that the smell was exceedingly offensive to two of his friends, and he hesitated in donning a carefully prepared garment. The case needed reflection. It would never do to offend his friends, and, perhaps, others, with a villainous amount of garlic, and it would look bad for him not to keep his engagement. So he was compelled to choose between the two horns of a dilemma, and concluded to remain at home, enjoying the company of his good wife and interesting children. A dose of garlic gained a victory for a deserving wife, and now the husband demands the savory vegetable for every Sunday dinner. Wives, you whose husbands will enjoy the luxury, try the remedy on recreant husbands.—New Orleans Republican.

VERMONT.

The Battle of the Bullfrogs.

Many of the citizens of Vermont will remember to have seen on one-dollar bills of the Windham County State Bank a vignette representing bullfrogs fighting. This was engraved to commemorate the battle of bullfrogs. The facts were as follows: Many years ago, when the town of Windham was newly settled, there came a very dry season. There are two large ponds in Windham, separated by an intervening strip of land of considerable extent. Each of the ponds was inhabited by a large community of the reptiles above named. The smaller pond dried up and its inhabitants started in a body for the lower and larger pond. They were met in the intervening space by the community from the larger pond, and a fierce and long continued battle ensued between the rival communities. Such was the hideous bellowing of the frogs during their fierce encounter that it alarmed the inhabitants, who at first supposed it to be the whoop of the hostile savages. But curiosity getting the better of their fears, they cautiously proceeded to the spot whence the hideous sound issued, and there beheld the strange spectacle of two immense armies of bull frogs, covering many acres of ground, engaged in a fierce and deadly battle. This battle continued more than twenty-four hours, and when it was over the ground was literally covered with the slain, and it became necessary, to avoid the noxious effluvia, to gather and bury them.—Boston Transcript.

DOGS AND OTHER THINGS.

Letter From Hon. Caleb Cushing.

Hon. Caleb Cushing has addressed the following note to the editor of the Germantown Daily Chronicle:

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 21, 1873.

DEAR SIR: There is so much both of good sense and of good humor in your article of the 18th, entitled "A Dog's Delight," as to induce me to write you a few words on the subject. I perceive all the newspapers chronicle my dog fight. I have thus of a sudden become famous pretty much as Alcibiades did by cutting off his dog's tail to the astonishment of all Athens. I plead guilty to barking at Sir Alexander Cockburn; but I have done this in self-defense, and, as it seems to me, with great moderation, seeing that Sir Alexander began barking at me through 130 pages of close-printed large octavo, while I only barked at him through only twenty-five pages of large type leaded, these pages not half the size of the others. You see I have been very temperate. In justice to Mr. Fernando Wood, also, I desire to say that the dog did not belong to him, but to his tenant at will, Thomas Kelly, and that, being written to on the subject, Mr. Wood gave me full permission to act in my discretion against both Kelly and his dog.

I remain yours truly, C. CUSHING.

Why Do Consumptives Die?
The first blow against any enemy with which we have to contend is always an important one; hence the consumptive who puts off to a distant day the necessary treatment to effect a cure, will not only lose valuable time, but will also incur the risks of a fatal termination. Yet ever since the introduction of Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure this hitherto fatal disease is shorn of more than half its terrors. The reason then why consumptives die, may be found in the fact that they do not begin the treatment early enough. The disease has oftentimes made sad ravages in the lung tissue before any treatment, suitable to a cure has been instituted, and we need not marvel, such being the case at the many fatal terminations. If you look for a cure begin in time. Do not wait until the other vital organs have felt the baneful influence of this lung malady. Dr. Keyser's Lung Cure has cured very many bad cases, and should a cure be possible will always effect it, but that does not furnish grounds for criminal neglect, when a remedy of such great power is so easily obtainable. Dr. Keyser is a regularly educated physician and has given to the world in his Lung Cure, a boon of priceless value, not only in consumption, but in a score of chronic maladies which have been the source of much individual suffering and the bane of many a household. The Doctor's treatise should be read by all. It may be had by addressing Dr. Keyser, at his principal office, 167 Liberty St., Pittsburgh, Pa.

DAILY GAZETTE.

FINANCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, July 28, 1873.

The week opened on an extremely dull money market. The supply of money continues abundant, and all the banks are prompt to discount legitimate business paper, of which, however, there is but very little at present. First-class paper is readily discounted at 8@10 ₽ cent. ₽ annum. There is no change to note in local stocks or real estate.

George B. Hill & Co., Bankers, No. 58 Fourth Avenue, furnish the following quotations of bonds and stocks from the latest advices by telegraph:

Messrs. Robinson Bros., bankers, No. 73 Fourth avenue, furnish the following quotations of active stock on the Philadelphia Stock Board today:

Penna. Central	54⅛	54⅛
Reading	55⅛	55⅛
United Cos. of N. J.	122	122

The demand for money in Philadelphia is on the increase. Lenders are beginning to look forward to a better scale of rates. Banks are discounting liberally for their friends at the legal rates, but in the outside market the lowest figure accepted is seven per cent up to eight for best paper. Call loans quiet and steady at 6@7 per cent., money being freely offered at this range on good collateral. The stock market is without spirit. Prices are firm for City sixes; New Certificate sold at 101. Lot of Reading railroad sold at 55⅛. Pennsylvania brought 54⅛@54⅜, the latter sixty days; Lehigh Valley at 61, and Little Schuylkill at 46⅛. In canal stocks only, the transactions were in Lehigh, which sold at 20@20⅛. The list is dull all around. Fire Association shares sold at 135 and Pennsylvania Life Annuity Company at 170.

In Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Boston and Baltimore there is no material change to notice in the financial situation.

NEW YORK, July 28, 1873.

Money was easy at 3@4 per cent. Sterling was weak and lower at 108⅛@109 for sixty days and 109⅛@109⅝ for sight. Gold was weak in the morning, declining to 115⅝, but afterwards there was a firmer feeling, with all business at 115⅝@115⅞, closing at 115⅞. Loans were from 1 to 4 per cent. for carrying, and flat for borrowing. Clearings $25,000. The Assistant Treasurer disbursed $124,000. German bankers were the principal buyers to-day. Governments were dull and firm. State bonds were quiet and nominal. Stocks were active at the higher range of prices. Unusually large business was done in some stocks, Western Union being the most prominent. There were some large purchases of Lake Shore and New York Central, and both were strong in tone. Erie was the weak spot of the market, falling off from 59⅛ to 58⅞. Sales were reported as low as 58⅛, seller ten days. There was no important difference between cash and regular. Harlem was irregular, changing from 124 to 132⅛, with late sales at 122⅛@132⅛. The Express says the activity in stocks to-day was due to a considerable extent to orders to buy from different watering places, especially orders from Saratoga for Vanderbilt stocks. The market closed strong for Vanderbilt shares, led by Western Union, weak for Erie, but otherwise steady.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY July 28, 1873.

ALE—Standard Pittsburgh brands are still quoted at $8 per brl to the city, and $9 to the country for X; $10 for XX, and $11 for India Ale. Half barrels in proportion.

ASHES—Market continues quiet, and prices are nominally unchanged; Common Soda Ash 4¼; refined, 6; Nitrate, 5; Pearls, 11; Potash 9@9½; Arsenic, 4½@5.

APPLES—The arrivals continue light, and with a supply scarcely equal to the demand, the market is strong and prices are higher, ranging from $4 to $5 ₽ brl. for good to prime. In the event of increased receipts, which may be looked for at any time, lower prices will be the result.

BUTTER—The market continues very quiet, and even for the best grades the feeling is hardly as firm as it has been, although there has been no quotable change in prices, as compared with last week; 10@15 for common to medium, and 18@20 for prime to choice.

BROOM CORN—There is a continued fair demand, and while the market is steady, there has been no change in prices, which range from 5 to 7c for common red to good green, and 8@9c for hurl. The receipts, although not large, are sufficient to keep up the supply, and the demand is confined wholly to supplying immediate wants.

BEANS—There is an occasional inquiry for small lots, but they are out of season, and the supply is almost exhausted; prices are nominally unchanged, ranging from $2.50@3 ₽ bushel, according to quality.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 34@37c ₽ lb.

BROOMS—In fair demand and firm but unchanged. No. 2, $1.75 No. 3, $2. No. 4, $2.50. No. 5, $2.75. Carpet Brooms, $3.50. Toy, $1.50, Wisps, $1.50@2.50.

BAGGING—Penn Mill two bushel bags, 35c; two and one-half bushel, 42; three bushel, 50.

CEMENT & LIME—Louisville Cement, $2.00@2.25 per barrel Youghiogheny, $1.75@2. Rosendale, $3.50@3.75; Portland, $8@8.20. Plaster Calcined—Mills & Co's, $3.25@3.50. Eastern, $3.75@4. Michigan, $3.50. Lime—Cleveland Tremont, Perrysburg, $1.75@2; Eastern, $1.60@1.75 Land Plaster, 3.50@3.75.

COPPER—Following are the card rates, cash, as reported by Park & Co.: Braziers' Copper, 13 lb. sheets and upward, 40c. Braziers' Copper, 10, 11 and 12 lb. sheets, 43c. Braziers' Copper, 9 lb. and less, 42c; Circles, under 81 in diameter, 43c. Circles, 84 in diameter and over, 46c. Segment and Pattern Sheets, 43c. Sheathing Copper, 14 in. by 48 in., 38c. Bolt Copper, 40c. Locomotive Fire Box Plates, 40c.

COTTON, SHEETING and YARNS.—Penn Mill A. No. 1, 4-4 Sheeting, 12c, Nonatook, 12c, Pittsburgh Family, 11c. Juniata, B. fine, 11c, White Carpet Chain fine, 36c Colored, 43c. Cotton Batting, 18; Cotton Twine, 33.

CORDAGE & ROPE—Manilla rope, ¾ inch in diameter and upwards, 18 cents, ⅜, 19c; ¼, and 5-16, 19½c tarred rope and lath yarn, 18c and hay and leather twine, 19. Sisal rope—¾ and 5-16 inch diameter, 17c. ¾, 16½; ¾ and upwards, 16; hay and spoke twine, 16½. Oil well drilling, cables—hawser laid, 18¼c; do. bolt rope and yarn, 20c; Sand pump rope, 18½.

CHEESE—The market during the past week has ruled very firm and somewhat excited, and prices, since the date of our last weekly report, have advanced a full half a cent, and even at the advance, the supply is not equal to the demand; we now quote prime Ohio Factory at 11½ cents to the trade, and 12½ cts. in a jobbing way—there is little or no call for the lower grades. There has been a heavy export demand, and to this may be attributed mainly the recent sharp advance.

CANNED GOODS—There is little or no inquiry for goods of this character—there never is at this season of the year, and we omit quotations.

CARBON OIL—Continues very quiet in a jobbing way, but we look for the western trade to open up next month; prices are nominally unchanged; 14½@15c by the car load, and 1@2 cts. additional for smaller lots.

COUNTRY BACON—The arrivals during the past week or two have been very meagre, but there is little or no call for it and the season is about over; good Clear Sides may be quoted at 7@7½. Country Lard is in light supply, but there is not much inquiry for it, and prices are nominal at 7@8c, as to quality.

DRIED FRUIT—There is but very little call for anything in this line, nor is it to be expected at this season of the year—when there is an abundance of new fruit. Prime halve Peaches, in view of the fact that the Peach crop is likely to be a light one, are considered a good investment to carry over until next year.

EGGS—There has been but little change in prices during the past week, but the market is quiet, and a small increase in the receipts would be sufficient to cause a decline; quotations may be given at 18@20.

FIRE BRICK—West Virginia, $18 to $20. Boliver grades, $35. Star, $40. Woodland $35. Mount Savage, $65.

FLOUR—The market has been moderately active during the past week, and with the exception that the outlook is scarcely as strong in regard to prices, there are no new features worthy of special notice. We continue to quote, in a jobbing way, at $7@7.50 for Spring wheat flours, the outside figure for choice Minnesotas, and $8@8.50 for red winter wheat, as to quality. Liverpool, according to our latest advices, was reported quiet, but the principal western markets seem to be holding their own pretty well.

GRAIN—The market for all kinds of Grain continues quiet, and in a general way presents but little that is really new or important; the inquiry, as a rule, is for small lots to meet immediate requirements, but as stocks are by no means large, prices are fully sustained—there is an entire absence of anything like speculation. Wheat continues in very limited supply, and there is still some inquiry for it, but prices remain unchanged, $1.50@1.55 for fair to good, and $1.58@1.60 for choice red—the inquiry is mainly from country millers, the mills here seem to be well supplied. Oats in rather better supply, the receipts within the past week having been rather larger, but with a steady demand, prices are fully sustained; we continue to quote at 43@44 for mixed, and 45@46 for white. Corn, both Ear and Shelled, is in light supply, the arrivals for several weeks having been meagre, but the demand is light, and prices are nominally unchanged; 57@58 on track; and 55@56 free in elevator for Shelled, and 57@58 for Ear in bulk, as to quality. Rye is very quiet, there is little or none here, and, so far as we can learn, there is but little call for it; quotable, nominally at 75@80 cents. The fact that distillers generally are buying very sparingly, some of them none at all, has a depressing effect on both Rye and Shelled Corn.

GROCERIES—The market has been moderately active during the past week, but there are no new features worthy of special notice. Both Coffees and Sugars are reported firm, but prices remain unchanged.

SUGARS—Patent Cut Loaf, 13c; Crushed, Granulated and Powdered, 12; Standard A, 11¾; B; 11¼; Ex. C, 11c; C. Yellow, 10¾; Circle C, 10¾. Lower grades, 9@10.

COFFEE—Choice Rio, 25; Good to Prime, 22¾@23¾c. fair 21@21½c. Old Government Java, 28c; other Javas, 26@27c. Roasted Rio, 1 lb packages, 28c; loose, 27½c. Roasted Java, 33½.

SYRUPS—White Drips, 65; other grades ranging from 60 to 40, as to quality.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 10; prime, 9 Patna, 8@8½; Rangoon, 7½@8

MOLASSES—Choice New Orleans, 73@75c Prime 70@72.

FISH—Large Shore, No. 1, $25.00 per barrel Med Shore No. 1, $23 per brl Bay No. 1, $21 for brls, quarters and kitts, 32c more. Lake Herring halfs, $3.75 Lake herrings, quarters, 2.15 White fish, $8.

CANDLES—Mould candles 12c, Stearine do., 14 Star do., 20.

SUNDRIES—Pennsylvania Concentrated Lye, $8 Philadelphia, $7.75. bi-carb. Soda, kegs, 8c boxes, 8c. Hammel's Extract of Coffee, $4. Oswego & Duryea's Corn Starch, 11 silver and Satin, 10. buffalo Corn Starch, 10; Buffalo Gloss Starch, 9. Pearl Starch, 5. Soot, $2.85 per bag. Lead, 12. Wheeling Tobies, $10.50.

SOAP—Babbit's soap, 10. Bell's Buffalo soap, $6.75. Strung & Wetzel's wax, 7½c. No. 1 Rosin 7⅛c. Procter & Gamble's wax, 7c.

HAY—The market under the influence of increased receipts and a diminished demand, is weaker, and notwithstanding the supply is only moderate, there seems to be a stronger disposition manifested to realize, and, in consequence, we reduce our quotations in baled slightly, $25@27, according to quality. Loose is selling from country wagons, that is for new crop, at $20@25 ₽ ton. The supply of Old in this section of the country is about exhausted.

HIDES—Following are the ruling quotations: Green Salted Steer Hides, 11½. Green Salted Mixed, 10@11. Green Salted Cow, 10@11c, Green Butcher steer, 8@9 Green butcher cows, 7@8; Green butcher bull hides, 6; Green Salted Kip, 11@13. Green Salted Calf each, 1.90@2.10 Green Butcher's Calf, 12@15. Flint Hides nominal at 22 cents.

LUMBER—Following are the yard prices: Unplaned lumber—Clear 65 per M. first common $55. second common, 30. third, $27 sheeting, $22. Hemlock, joist and scantling, $20. Pine frame lumber, $28. Planed lumber—first common, $60 Clear, 70. Flooring boards, $35, partition do. $45 shelving on both sides, $35 on one side. $37 Molded weather boarding, $37. ⅝ inch patent planed do, $25. ⅝ inch unplaned, $20 inch vertical, $33. Oak and Yellow Pine Flooring, $45. Moulded battens, 25 cents. No. 1, 18 inch sawed Shingles, per M, $6.50. No. 2 18 inch do., $5. Pailings, four and five feet, 35 cents. Locust Posts, 60c. Lath, $4.50.

LEATHER—Following are the current rates for the various descriptions: Oak Sole, heavy, 40@42 Oak Sole, med and light, 35@38 Oak Sole, Spanish, 36@38; Red Sole, B. A. heavy and med, 31@33; Red Sole, Oronoco, 27@31 Red Sole, good dgd, 28@28 Shoe Skirting, 44@46 Shoe Skirting trimmed and sold at original weight, 45. Rough Oak Leather, 35@36. No. 1 Pad Skins, per dozen, $7.50@8. Harness best city, pure oak, 41@44; Harness, best country, 39@41. Harness, ordinary oak, 35@37. Fair Skirting, 44@46; Fair Bridle, per dozen, $60@66. Black bridle, per dozen, $50@60. Band Leather, per lb, 39@44. Finished calf, country, $1.10@1.40; French Calf, 1.60@2.20. French Calf, imitation, 1.50@1.55 Wax upper, per foot, 22@27; Wax Kip, per pound 90@$1.

OILS—No. 1 Lard Oil, 70@72 cents. No. 2 65c. Linseed, 96c@98. Whale W. B., 88@90c. Bank, 68c. Straits, 73c. Cod, $1.50@2. Spirits of Turpentine, 53@56c

PAINTS—Following are the current rates: Brandon Yellow, 2@3 cents. Blue Prussian, 35 @50. Blue Ultramarine, 25@45c. Green Chrome, 14@18. Green Paris, 30@50c. Green Verditter, 17@20c. Green Versailles, 22@26c. Lamp Black, 7@8c. Lamp Black Germantown, 13@15c. Metallic Paints, 4@6c. Mineral Paints, 2½@3¼c. Spanish Brown, 1½@2½. Venetian Red, American, 2½@3¼. Venetian Red, English, 3½@4¼c.

POTATOES—The arrivals within the past week have been unusually large, and as stocks have commenced to accumulate, and holders more anxious to sell, prices have dropped from $3@3.50 ₽ barrel; we now quote at $2¼@3 ¾ ₽ brl according to quality.

PEA NUTS—In fair supply, but with a steady demand, prices are maintained, ranging from 7@7¼c ₽ lb.

POULTRY—Spring chickens are quotable at 50 to 60 cents, and full grown at 70 to 80 ₽ pair, according to size.

ONIONS—There is a very fair demand, but there has been no recent change in prices; $4@5 ₽ bri, as to quality.

PROVISIONS—Extra Sugar Cured Hams, ₽ lb. 16c. Ex. Sugar Cured Shoulders, 11; Sugar cured Breakfast Bacon, 13c. Extra Sugar Cured Dried Beef, 19½c. Beef tongues, $7.50 ₽ dozen. Bacon Shoulders, per lb, 9½c. Bacon Rib Sides, 10½c. Bacon Short Rib Sides 11c. Bacon Clear Rib Sides, 11½c. Mess Pork, $18 00 per barrel. Refined Lard for summer use, in trcs, 10c. Do, half bbls, 10½c. Do bkts 11½c. Do, in 3 lb. caddies, 12⅛c. Do in 5 lb. 12¼c; Do. in 3 lb. pails 13¼c ₽ pound. Do. in 6 lb. pails, 13.

RAGS—Quoted at 3½@3¾c.

SEEDS—There is some little inquiry for Timothy Seed, but there is scarcely enough doing to establish quotations. Flax Seed is scarce, and millers are talking about all that offers at $2.10@2.12½.

WHITE LEAD—There is a continued good demand, and manufacturers are full of orders, some of them are reported behind, and unable to catch up; prices, however, remain unchanged, 12c for ton lots, and 12½c in a jobbing way. In tin packages, ¼ to ½ ₽ lb additional. Outside brands can always be obtained below the combination rates.

WINDOW GLASS—Trade is still reported dull, hence, as might be expected, with no improvement in the demand, manufacturers have not been able to realize any better prices. Hopes are still entertained, however, that there will soon be a reaction, and it is scarcely probable that the present stagnation will hold out much longer, and furthermore, it is evident, that supplies in hands of jobbers must be small, unusually so, as stocks in first hands are remarkably heavy for this season of the year, while so far as we can learn, there has been no increase in the production—nearly all the factories have been stopped for some time, and they are not likely to start up before the middle of August, perhaps the first of September. No change in discounts, which we continue to quote at 60 and 5 to 60 and 10 for round lots—just about 10 per cent higher than they were at this time last year.

WHISKY—Highwines, 96@97c.

WOOL—The market is rather quiet and offerings light owing to the harvest season. We do not note any change in prices since our last report. Eastern markets are not quite so firm as last week, the receipts of the new clip being large, and some holders pressing sales. It seems difficult to obtain over 50c in the eastern markets for the best grades of fleece, such as X and XX, and in some cases 47 and 48 has been accepted. We hear of pretty large purchases in various sections of Western Pennsylvania and Ohio recently, ranging from 40 to 43, generally 40 to 42c. Our quotations remain unchanged. Common fleece, 35@38. Medium do., 38@40. Fine fleece, 40@42. Unwashed, 26@30.

Total	45 "

Calculating the above 45 cars at 20 head to the car, we have 900; add to this 300 driven in from the adjoining country, and we have, in round numbers, 1,200 as the total number on sale, against 800 last week, an increase of four hundred cattle, and it is worthy of notice that the arrivals from Chicago are gradually falling off, while there is an increase in the receipts from Ohio and the adjoining country. With this largely increased supply, the largest, we have had for several weeks, the market, as might be expected, was not a very good one for the selling interest; it opened slow, and except for strictly prime stock, dragged all the way through, and while prices were generally reported from ¼ to ½ of a cent lower, there were but few left over—one dealer had over five cars left over out of 7 cars, but it was because he was unwilling to sell at the prices. Dealers with very few exceptions, reported the market as having been a very unsatisfactory one, and from what we could learn, they made little or no money; in addition to the decline here, some of them reported that their cattle cost more, we refer particularly to those who bought in Chicago, which made it still worse—they were unfortunate at both ends of the line.

It is alleged that a good many cattle were sold on Sunday, mainly of the better grades, also, that those who sold on the day in question, obtained better prices than were realized to-day; and we will take occasion to state in this connection, that there is a good deal of complaint about this Sunday work, and it should be stopped. It is unlawful to buy or sell cattle on the Sabbath, and the law should be enforced, and besides, it gives those who indulge in it an undue advantage over those who do not. Drovers have no more right to violate the Sabbath than any other class of men, and there is no necessity for it.

The most of the cattle on sale to day were common in point of quality, consisting of thin native "grassers," and these are the kind that depreciated the most in value, because the supply was unusually large, and holders were all anxious to sell, they could see no inducement to hold them over. The very best butcher cattle were from Chicago, and these were sold at from 6¼@6¾, against 6¾@6⅞ for same kind last Monday. Medium to good quotable at 6@6¼. Fair to good "grassers" sold at 4¾@5¼; common, 3¼@4. Bulls also dull, and the supply to day seemed to be larger than for some time past. For further particulars we refer the reader to the annexed report of sales:

M. Kauffman sold 18 head of fair Washington County steers, averaging 800@900 lbs at 3¼@4¼c.

Greenwald and Kahn sold 58 head of fair to prime Ohio stock from Wyandotte Co at 5@6½c.

Richardson and Re is sold 29 head of Ohio stock on commission, at 4@6

Joseph Stakeley sold 3 good 1,000 lb bulls at 3c; 1 common 800 lb heifer at 3½c.

P. Sheitmantle sold 16 Butler Co heifers and steers at 4½@5½.

Rothchilds and Haas sold 34 prime Chicago stock at 5¾@6¾.

H. Nagle sold 1 fresh cow at $40; 8 head heifers and steers at 4c.

I. C. McNeese sold 18 head of mixed Butler Co. stock at 3@4¼.

John Beeler sold 2 Butler Co. bulls at 3c; 2 cows at 4c.

Jacob Saamberg sold 18 head of good butcher cattle, from Chicago, at 6¼@6¾; 23 from Green Co. Pa., at 3¼@6; 15 from Washington Co., on commission, at 4@5½.

Holmes, Lafferty and Co. sold 22 head mixed Washington Co. stock at 4@5.90.

W. Moonshine sold 1 car of Chicago butcher cattle at 6@6½.

Kestner and Metz sold 1 car of Chicago stock, 6@6¾.

Eli Katz sold 1 car of Chicago cattle at 5¼@7c; 1 car from Ohio at 4¼@5¼.

C. F. Laiblin sold 3 fresh cows at $30 each; one bull at 3¼; 5 steers at 4¼@4¾, averaging 970.

L. Keifer sold 25 head of mixed stock as 5@6¾—1 car from Chicago.

Jas Hanlin sold 12 head of Washington county stock at 3¼@5.

Isaac Zeigler reported 1 car from Chicago, and 12 from Washington Co. at 4¼@6¾.

Jacob Lobman reported one car from Chicago, and twelve from Washington County at 5¼@6.62.

M. Kraus sold 1 car of Chicago cattle at 5½@6¾; 10 head country stock, 5@5¼.

Louis Gerson sold 1 car of butcher cattle from Chicago at 6@6¾.

M. Varner reported 2 cars from Chicago at 5@6¾; 18 from Green Co, at 4@5c.

Sadler, Havens and Co. sold two cars of Illinois at 5¼@6¼ cents. One car of common at 4@5¼.

Lowensteine and Arnold reported one car of Chicago stock at 6@6¾; 48 from Washington and Green Cos., at 4@5¼.

Orr and Williams reported 2 cars of mixed Ohio stock at 3¼@6¼.

S. Marks Bro. reported 1 car from Chicago, and 3 from Ohio at 6@6¾.

Nicholas Carr sold 40 head of Illinois cattle for M. McClury at 5@5¾. The same party had 96 head left over, as he was unwilling to put them on the market at the prices.

Hazlewood and Blackstock sold 39 head of common to fair Ohio stock on commission at 3@5 cents.

S. Traurman, 24 Ohio cattle at 6@6½.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

The supply on sale to-day footed up about 1,800 against some 2,200 or 2,300 last Monday; however, notwithstanding the decreased supply, the market was generally reported slow, and common stock was, if anything, lower than last week, although, upon the whole, we do not think there was much change in prices. The quality, as a rule, was common, hence, the better grades, as the supply was not in excess of the demand, sold quicker and at relatively better prices than the common kinds. Prime fat sheep sold at from 5 to 5¼. Medium to good at 4¼@4¾. Lambs at $3@4 ₽ head for good to prime, and $1.50@2 for scalawags.

John F. Neeley sold 90 head of Washington Co. sheep at 3¼@5 cents ₽ pound, according to quality.

James Norris sold 33 Allegheny County sheep at $3¼@4½ per head, and 9 scalawag lambs at $1.50 ₽ head.

John Fairley sold 136 Armstrong Co. lambs at from $1.25 to $3.50 ₽ head.

P. J. Kelley, of Butler Co, reported 100 lambs at $2.00@3.40 ₽ head

R. McCaslin, of Lawrence Co., reported 40 good butcher sheep at $4¼ per head. 33 lambs at $2@3¼.

Joseph Stakeley sold 54 good lambs, weighing 60 lbs, at an average of $3¾ ₽ head.

Peter Sheitmantle reported 145 sheep and lambs at 4@5c ₽ lb for former, and $2½@3¾ per head for latter.

Goettman and Ekis reported 125 Butler Co. lambs at $2½@4 ₽ head.

Henry Nagle sold 25 Butler County lambs at $2½@3¾ ₽ head.

I. C. McNeese sold 87 Butler Co. lambs at $1.75@3.50 ₽ head.

J. W. Cunningham, of Lawrence Co, reported 70 sheep at $3@4 ₽ head.

Jacob Keefer reported 110 Lawrence County lambs at $1.50@3.50 ₽ head.

Adam Eckert sold 72 lambs at $2½@4 ₽ head. 140 sheep at $2½@5.

C. F. Laiblin bought 77 Ohio sheep, averaging 80 pounds at 4½; 72 head of his own, which were held over.

James Hanlin sold 80 head of Washington Co. sheep at from 4¼c ₽ lb. down.

Hazlewood and Blackstock sold 55 fair Ohio sheep at 4 30.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, July 28, 1873.

The Crude market continues weak, though, as compared with Saturday, there has been but little change in prices; $1.80@1.82½ ₽ brl. at Parker, equal to 5¼c ₽ gallon delivered here. Advices were received of two new strikes, one yielding 600, and the other 250 barrels ₽ day; a few more strikes like these, and crude will not be worth the handling of it. Refined is quiet and unchanged; 18¼ on spot; 18 for August, and 18 for September—Philadelphia delivery. There is not much oil offering, and refiners are generally are pretty well sold up—some of them have sold their entire product during the next three months.

There is a steady demand for Oil Barrels, and regular sales reported at $2.15 for countries, and $2.25 for city make.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, July 28.—A spirited movement in wool flannels and clothing woolens continues, with liberal sales by manufacturers' agents. The market for woolens is steady, and bottom prices are believed to have been reached. Cotton goods are steady, with a fair package demand for brown and bleached cottons and cotton flannels. Prints are quiet, but full assortments are now shown. The Daily Bulletin says the new Pacific and Atlantic worsted dress fabrics are selling freely to the Western trade. Foreign goods are dull.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Speedily Cured.—All Forms
of Venereal, Private and Nervous disease at the old established Girard Medical Institute, No. 172 Second avenue, between Smithfield and Grant streets, Pittsburgh, Pa.
NO CHARGE UNTIL CURED.
Syphilis, Stricture, Orchitis, Hernia and all Urinary diseases are cured in the shortest possible time that will insure permanent relief. Spermatorrhea, or Seminal weakness and Impotency, as the result of self-abuse or excess in maturer years, and which produce some of the following effects, as emissions, blotches, debility, dizziness, nervousness, dimness of sight, cough, indigestion, constipation, despondency, confusion of ideas, aversion to society, loss of memory, and sexual power, and which unfits the victim for business or marriage, and ultimately causing insanity and consumption, are thoroughly and permanently cured. Medicines supplied at the Institute. A medical pamphlet relating to private diseases sent in sealed envelope for two stamps. All communications confidential.
This Institution was established for the express purpose of supplying the afflicted with scientific and reliable treatment, and is not to be classed with the numerous quacks and impostors that infest all large cities. The proprietors have made the treatment of Private and special diseases the study of their lives, and can refer to thousands all over the country that have been benefitted and cured by them. No matter how difficult or long standing your case may be, if curable, after a personal examination they will frankly tell you; remember, they have cured many cases given up by other physicians.
Patients treated by mail or express, but where possible, it is best to visit the city for personal consultation, or address:
GIRARD MEDICAL INSTITUTE,
No. 172 Second avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa. Office hours 9 A. M. to 7 P. M. Sundays by appointment.

RIVER NEWS.

The stage of water last evening was 7 feet 3 inches and falling, a rise of about 4 feet during the preceding twenty four hours; this rise was entirely out of the Allegheny. Weather continues cloudy and hot, with a heavy shower late in the afternoon.

No arrivals to report, and the Mallie Ragon, for Wheeling, was the only departure.

Capt. James Taylor, of McKeesport, has purchased an interest in the new towboat Katy Dickson at the rate of $11,000. The owners as yet have not determined where they will employ the Katy.

It is said that the Mollie Ebert will lie up as soon as she reaches St. Louis for the purpose of having some repairs made. The Exchange and Juniata should arrive at Cincinnati within the next 24 hours, and we presume they will both commence to load for return trips.

Capt. J. J. Darragh expects to have the hull of his mammoth sternwheeler ready to launch about the first of October.

The Arlington came off the ways at Cincinnati yesterday all right, drawing 28 inches aft and 20 inches forward, making her, it is said, the lighest boat of her size in the west.

The Wild Duck was reported aground at Beaver Shoals on Sunday, but the rise has no doubt let her off before this.

The N. J. Bigley has gone to assist the John Hanna up with her tow of ore.

—The St. Louis Democrat says: Boat owners are not purchasing licenses to use the steam capstan called McMillan's, and may never be called upon by a peremptory mandate of law to pay up or shut off steam. Judge McKennan's decision in the United States District Court at Pittsburgh is not final, and at all events is limited to that district only. Captains Rhodes and Gray, against whom judicial proceedings were instituted by the claimants, will carry their case before the Supreme Court in Washington, and think they can defeat the aspirations of McMillan. We have heard it said that John Shaffer, the well-known steamboat engineer, made a drawing of this identical steam capstan, before McMillan seemed to have thought anything about it.

—The Natchez Democrat remarks: "The collector of customs, Mr. R. W. Fitzhugh, has shown us his letter of instructions from the Treasury Department concerning the sale of the Marine Hospital at this place, which is announced to take place July 28. We notice that the property is not to be sold at auction. On that day Mr Fitzhugh will receive written bids on the premises, which are to be indorsed by him and the special agent of the Treasury, with any recommendations they may see fit to make, and forwarded to the department, which may accept any or reject all of the bids."

—L. L. Hine, of Keokuk, secured at $173,200 the contract for the excavation and embankment, and construction of the embankment wall of the guard lock and canal, and the channel at the entrance to the canal, now in process of construction around the Des Moines Rapids of Keokuk. The amount of the appropriation to be expended on the work this season is $400,000.

—Sharpers fleeced Harry Ham, a passenger on the steamer Rock Island, out of $550 between Davenport and Clinton, on Saturday. The chaps were arrested at Clinton, however, where the sum of $717.35 was taken from them.

NOTICE.—TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

All owners of steamboats using our Patent Steam Capstan are hereby notified if they do not take out their licenses for use of said Capstan on or before August 1st, 1873, that we will commence legal proceedings against them at once without further notice.

Licenses can be had by applying to JOHN RINDLEY, at office, 263 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

HOME NEWS.

Summer Changes.

Any of our readers who may desire to have the DAILY GAZETTE mailed to their address, out of town, during the summer months can be accommodated by leaving their names at our business office. We will send the edition for SEVENTY-FIVE CENTS per month.

Death of an Old Resident.

The funeral of Mr. George Wheeler, Senior, one of the oldest glass-blowers in the State, took place yesterday morning.

Marriage License Declined.

A colored individual called at the Mayor's office on Saturday last and asked for a marriage license, which was declined, the lady alleged to be the better half not putting in an appearance.

Death of an Esteemed Lady.

Mrs. Annie M., the wife of Charles B. Barr, senior member of the firm of Messrs. Barr & Moser, died on Sunday evening last. She was a lady much esteemed in all circles of social life.

Sun Struck.

Mrs. King, of North street, Allegheny, was sun struck last Saturday. She was taken into a residence on the grounds of the Lutheran graveyard, and a physician pronounced her case a critical one.

Stolen Articles Found.

John Brown, not of Ossawotamie notoriety, however, was in trouble again yesterday. His distinguished name will appear this morning, and against it will be the grave charge, "Found in possession of stolen articles."

The Boat Race between Bowman and Richardson.

In the race rowed between Bowman and Richardson for a purse of $10, on Saturday evening, a foul was claimed before Richardson had proceeded twenty feet from the starting point, on account of his boat capsizing.

Suits Instituted by Health Officer.

Health Officer Gray yesterday morning instituted suits against E. Frey, of 22 Diamond street, Wm. Hinely, 231 Centre avenue, O. Burris, 23½ Diamond, Fred. Rust, 85 Market street, Jesse Ingraham, 22 Diamond, and McGlenn & Co., Market street.

Accidentally Killed.

The young lad named Keckert, injured by tampering with a stick of phosphorus which he discovered in the yard in the rear of Abel's drug store, on Wylie street, on the 9th instant, died last night from the effects of said injury, at the residence of his parents on Miltenberger alley.

Narrow Escape.

Yesterday about noon, as a freight train on the Fort Wayne Road was crossing Federal street, Allegheny, a brakeman who was in the act of descending from the roof of one of the cars, was jolted to the ground, and received several bruises about his head and body. He was so near the track that the back of his head grazed the car wheels.

A Married Woman Elopes.

A single man eloped with a married woman in Lawrenceville on Saturday night last. The young eloper in question having ascertained that his sweethearts—some three in number—were more attractive to other men's eyes, concluded that she who loved him even if she belonged to another, was better than a single life, and so he concluded to cut somebody out.

Satisfactorily Adjusted.

Yesterday afternoon a little affair which at first promised to be rather unpleasant, was settled quite amicably by the parties in the office of Alderman McMasters. Josephine Kromacher appeared before the 'Squire and charged Rudolph Stupey with seduction and breach of promise of marriage. Shortly after the information was made Stupey was brought in and the two were made one, Stupey preferring marriage to going to jail, and so the matter was settled.

Robbery of a Railroad Office—An Arrest Made.

The robber of the ticket office at Beatty's station, several months since, has, it is thought, been discovered. A ticket was found upon a man named Brovaski, residing on Washington street, who got on board the express train at Greensburg en route to this city, which corresponded with those stolen from Beatty's station. The accused claims to have purchased the ticket at Hannahstown from an individual, and in good faith.

Resignation of a Select Councilman.

Mr. Schultz, a member of the Select Council from the Twenty-second ward, has tendered his resignation. The cause of his resignation is shown by his intention of bidding for the construction of an iron bridge across Four Mile Run on the line of the Greenfield avenue, across the city. As members of the Council are prohibited by law from engaging in any contract while they are members of the act of Mr. Schultz is open and very satisfactory.

The Price of a Glass of Whisky.

A barkeeper named John Hughes made a desperate assault upon one Benjamin Brightweister yesterday, because the last mentioned party declined to pay but 5 cents for his whisky. The barkeeper explained that such liquor was worth 10 cents per drink, but Benjamin not being a connoisseur of such articles, demonstrated, and hurled a bottle at the head of his disputant.

Mr. Brightweister is to be held accountable in the courts for this.

European Steamship Arrivals Reported Yesterday.

Prisoners to be Removed.

All persons confined in the Work House not entitled to the guardianship of that institution by reason of their proper confinement in other institutions on account of insanity, pauperism or sickness, will be removed to the jail or hospital. The Court, having examined the act of corporation, has directed that Wm Marks, convicted July 1st, for thirty days; Thomas Canby, July 1st, for sixty days; Matt. Donovan, June 26th, five months and sixteen days; Charles Thompson, July 10th, ninety days, and Bunting Gillespie, June 28th, sixty days, be sentenced to the hospital to serve out their unexpired terms.

Thrown from His Wagon.

Yesterday afternoon a German butcher, residing in Soho, named Shufeldt, was seriously injured at the corner of Seventh avenue and Liberty street, by being thrown out of his wagon. His boy was with him, and he was driving. They were about to cross the track when an approaching locomotive frightened the horse, and he made a sudden leap, throwing Mr. Shufeldt out. The horse was about to run away when he was captured by officer Berger. Mr. S. received a very severe gash on the back of his head. Dr. Shaw dressed his injuries, after which he was removed to his home.

Cases Before Deputy Mayor Saulsbury.

Felix Rodgers becoming obstreperous and while under the influence of the ardent, committed an assault and battery upon Officer Huested, was arrested and will undoubtedly suffer the severe penalty of the law.

Charles Hoover also committed an assault upon Adam Bucher, and will also be held responsible for his acts.

Two men and women were found drunk at the head of Mt. Oliver Inclined Plane on Sunday evening. They paid their fine yesterday morning, and let us hope will be more careful in the future.

The Death Harvest in Allegheny.

According to the Health report of Allegheny, forty deaths occurred during the past week, one of which was sporadic cholera, merely another term for cholera morbus, of which there were two deaths. The city shows a remarkable healthy condition upon which its citizens, many congratulate themselves. The total number of deaths was 40, of which two were colored, 28 males and 12 females. The diseases were: Cholera infantum, 17; cholera morbus, 2; convulsions, 1; whooping cough, 5; sporadic cholera, 1; dropsy, 1; still-born, 2; peritonitis, 2; inflamation of the bowels, 2; scarlet fever, drowned, consumption, Bright's disease, unknown, dysentery, pneumonia, congestion of the brain, rheumatism and erysipelas, each one.

Of the above there were under 1 year, 20; from 1 to 5, 5; from 5 to 10, 3; from 10 to 20, 3; from 20 to 30, 1; from 40 to 50, 3; from 50 to 60, 1; from 60 to 70, 3; from 70 to 80, 1.

The Other Side.

In regard to the statement in yesterday's issue concerning the burial of Margaret O'Donnell, we to-day present the other side of the question, and, as we anticipated, a different light is put upon the matter. Mr. Fortune, Secretary of the Guardians of the Poor, says that on Friday last Mrs. Quinn came to his office and asked that her sister-in law, Mrs. O'Donnell, might be buried at the expense of the county. He says that he is frequently troubled with cases of that kind, but instead of repelling her rudely, he told her to go and consult her pastor, Father Garland, for it is frequently the case when he furnishes means for the burial of Catholics in the Potter's Field, that complaint is made because the corpse was not interred in consecrated ground. After consulting with Father Garland he asked Mrs. Quinn to come and make known the result to him. The case is undoubtedly one of peculiar hardship, and the fact that the corpse remained unconfined for sixty-five hours will call expressions of pity and regret from every one, but from Mr. Fortune's statement, and there is no reason whatever to doubt the truth of it, he is not to blame.

RUNAWAY FREIGHT CARS.

A Boy Badly Hurt.

Yesterday afternoon the vicinity of Twelfth and Thirteenth streets was enlivened by the frantic endeavors of a few runaway coal cars, which came running down the track at a pretty brisk speed, and near Twelfth street ran off the track into the fence, demolishing cars, fence and all, and making a general spread of coke. The excitement in the vicinity caused several runaways, and a little boy named Henry Motz was knocked down by a horse attached to a buggy and very seriously, if not dangerously injured. He was taken to his home on Spring alley and medical aid summoned.

THE COURTS.

Yesterday's Proceedings.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.

[Before Judge McCandless.]

W. H. Constable, of Crawford county filed a petition for final discharge in bankruptcy. The usual order was made.

The assignee of George W. Stanton was authorized to sell at public sale certain book accounts.

In the matter of Charles Thatcher, Jr. vs. Smith & Thatcher, of Bradford county, an order was made referring the petition to Register Overton, with instructions to examine and report thereon.

In the case of Josiah Reymer vs. Wolfenden & Martin, the argument on the motion for an injunction was postponed until Saturday, 30th prox.

KAW INDIANS.

En-route to the Plains.—They Run Away from their Companions.

Two members of the Kaw Indians arrived in town yesterday. They have been travelling through the States giving exhibitions of their power as members of a barbaric race. Although the character of their amusements in this respect is only illustrative in a harmless way of their woodrous powers in connection with Indian warfare, still it will give the reader some idea of their power. A reporter of the GAZETTE in questioning them found that they preferred to get back to the Plains instead of living among civilized people. They would not under any circumstances live and travel with other member of their party, who are about to exhibit at Cresson and having foresight and cunning sufficient to know that people would be pleased with their antics, they were traveling along through every village, picking up money to get them to the wilds of the far West. One of them presented a well worn and dirty piece of paper, stating that "we very good Indians; want heap money; give us twenty-five cents." A treacherous looking dagger, which looked as though it had seen some service, constituted one portion of these Indians' apparel.

These men will probably never go directly home, but stopping at some far distant place on side the reach of civilized law, will spend their gains lavishly and foolishly, and in the end mischief is likely to occur.

THE TEMPERANCE ALLIANCE.

A County Convention Called—A County Temperance Ticket to be Nominated.

The Temperance Alliance of Allegheny county held a meeting yesterday afternoon to take into consideration the advisability of placing a temperance county ticket in the field. The meeting was organized at two o'clock by calling Mr. Rabe to the chair. Rev. E Swift offered up prayer, after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

On motion it was resolved to appoint a committee for carrying on the campaign in Allegheny and engaging speakers. Messrs Ross, Smith and Glenn were appointed. It was resolved to hold a public meeting on Monday evening next in the Second U. P. Church in Allegheny. Mr. Mowatt will be there to say what he knows about temperance.

Mr. Dermott asked for a committee to see to South Side. On motion Messrs. Dermott, Jennings and Lucas were appointed. A committee for between the rivers, consisting of Messrs. Kirk, Cranage and McGonigle, was also appointed.

A circular, calling primaries for electing delegates to a County Convention, to be held on or before the 26th proximo, at 10 A. M., was read and approved.

Mr. Ormond then offered the following, which was adopted:

Resolved, That we petition the Constitutional Convention to incorporate in the new Constitution, to be submitted to the vote of the people of the State, the provision, in substance, as follows, viz: The people of each county and city respectively in the State shall have the right, once every three years, to determine, by vote of the qualified electors, the question of the sale or of the prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage: and the Legislature shall, by general law, provide for carrying into effect this provision.

On motion, the meeting adjourned, after prayer by Rev. Mr. Stuchell.

DEATH OF A RECLUSE.

An Eccentric Woman's Death—A Horrible Sight—A Terribly Filthy Place—Coroner's Inquest.

Last evening Coroner West held an inquest on the body of Gertrude Schad, a widow aged sixty-two years, who resided at 213 River avenue, Allegheny. This woman, it appears, was an eccentric being in her way. She had seven grown up children living, but refused to live with any of them or allow any of them to live with her. For seven years past she has lived the life of a recluse in two little rooms in a house belonging to herself. These rooms she kept in an abominable condition, renting the balance of the house to whoever wanted it. The woman only lived there from a mere matter of eccentricity and choice, she owning several houses and having a large amount of money in her possession. She kept a numerous brood of chickens. These she was in the habit of feeding every morning, and let them out of the coop. On Sunday morning about seven o'clock she was last seen alive, then she had fed her chickens as usual and let them out. Yesterday morning she was missed, and yesterday afternoon one of the neighbors saw her son and asked him where his mother was. He said "she had not seen her." A search was then instituted; two men lent assistance and a ladder was procured and raised to the window and they looked in and saw the woman lying naked and dead on the bed. Chief of Police Clark was notified and he broke open the door. When the door had been broken open, a horrid sight presented itself. The body lay on the bed to swoolien double its natural size, and sending forth a horrible odour. The room was in a disgusting state, its filthy condition being almost unbearable to any one, even for a few minutes.

Dr. Kirker, made an examination and gave it as his opinion that the woman had died of cholera morbus. On Saturday evening the woman had partaken of green vegetables and drank a large quantity of beer; these are supposed to have caused her death. A verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered.

PISTOL PRACTICE.

Exciting Affair on Third Avenue—A Woman Seeks Vengeance with the Pistol—A Woman and a Child at the Bottom of It.

Great excitement was created yesterday afternoon at the corner of Wood street and Third avenue, by an attempt on the part of a young colored woman named Elizabeth Kelson to shoot a young man, also colored, named Shef. Cooper. Elizabeth claimed that Cooper was the father of her illegitimate child. The child alleged to be his, and which she presented as such, was about 18 months old. The woman upbraided Cooper, and demanded to know what he was going to do for the child's support. Not receiving a satisfactory answer, she was moved to tears and passion upon his remarks "that he did not know that he intended to do anything." As Cooper started to return into the shop she drew a revolver, and, with her child in her left arm, pistol in the right, she fired, and the shot took effect in the abdomen of Cooper. He, after receiving the shot, started to run, but the woman seeing his motive, grabbed him, and turning him around, fired another shot, which took effect in the abdomen. The victim wears a heavy steel truss, and therefore the effect of the shots were somewhat hindered. Cooper, after receiving the second shot, beat a hasty retreat, and before the woman could further follow to carry out her murderous intentions, officer McGovern arrived upon the scene and took her into custody. A large crowd followed the officer and the woman to the lock up, and subsequently to their arrival Cooper appeared at the Central Station and made information against his assailant. The woman asserts that Cooper is the father of her child, and although he has repeatedly promised to support the child, he has repeatedly failed to do so. Subsequent to the shooting the woman declared that she sought an interview with Cooper, and with the determination of shooting him, or forcing him to terms regarding the child. She has always stood ready to marry him, and his conduct in refusing to comply with her request in this respect, had driven her to some determined action. Cooper is not communicative upon the subject, but he preferred a charge of felonious assault and battery against his assailant, and a hearing will come off next Monday.

PITTSBURGH COUNCILS.

Yesterday's Session.

Plenty of Business—Additional Power for the Clothing Committee—The Thirty-Third Street Bridge—The Fifth Avenue Line Again—The Mayor's Refusal to Sign Subpœnas—Petitions, Remonstrances, Resolutions, &c.

SELECT COUNCIL.

Dr. A. H. GROSS,........................President.
E. S MORROW,........................Clerk.

After the minutes of the previous meeting had been read and approved, petitions etc. were called for under the rules.

A MEMBERS RESIGNATION.

The resignation of C. J. Schultz, member from the twenty-sixth ward, was read by the Clerk.

Mr. Scully stated the cause of the resignation, Mr. Schultz was the lowest bidder, by $12,000, for the construction of a bridge over Four mile run, and it was held over on account of objections made to his being a Councilman. The resignation was accepted.

Mr. Hunter presented a resolution authorizing the Street Commissioner to remove the turn-table of the Ormsby Passenger Railway, on Fourth avenue below market street.

Discussion being disallowed, Mr. McCandless moved that the rules be suspended to allow a vote. Not carried.

THE POLICE CLOTHING.

Mr. JEREMY offered a resolution giving the Police Committee or a sub-committee thereof power to examine and investigate the official accounts of the Mayor's office; also a resolution authorizing and instructing the Mayor to issue subpœnas for witnesses as may be needed. The resolutions were adopted under suspension of the rules.

Mr. CHALMERS presented a petition asking the fixing of grades on Colwell and Miller streets. Accepted, and a resolution instructing the engineer to fix the same was adopted.

RESOLUTIONS, ETC

Mr. ZERN, petition for permission to erect an iron-clad near the Union Depot Hotel. Referred to Building Inspector.

Mr. MCCANDLESS, remonstrance against sewer on Wylie avenue between Erin and Reed streets. Received.

Also, an ordinance repealing the ordinance providing for the same.

Mr. JEREMY objected, believing that the ordinance should be referred to the Street Committee.

On motion of Mr. MCCANDLESS the suspension of the rules was carried and the ordinance passed finally.

Also, a resolution for public lamp corner of Wylie avenue and Erin street. Referred to the Gas Committee.

Mr. WATSON, resolution authorizing the Water Commission to lay water main on Pearl street. Referred.

Mr. SMITH, an ordinance authorizing the engineer to advertise for proposals for construction of sidewalks on a number of streets in the Sixteenth ward. Read three times and passed.

Mr. KIRK, a resolution providing that, Common Council concurring, when Councils adjourn they adjourn until the last Monday of August.

Mr. PHILLIPS moved to amend by making it the second Monday of September.

The amendment was accepted.

Mr JEREMY moved to lay on the table. Lost.

Mr. CHALMERS moved an indefinite postponement. Lost.

The ayes and nays were called on the final adoption of the resolution, and it was carried by a vote of 40 to 15.

PETITIONS.

Mr. THOMPSON, petition for opening of Girard avenue. Accepted.

Mr. SCULLY, an ordinance amending the ordinance changing the terminus of Greenfield avenue. Adopted.

Mr. ATKINSON, a resolution authorizing the appointment of a committee for the approval of a plan for the numbering of houses on the South Side. Adopted and Messrs. Atkinson and Atterbury appointed on behalf of S. C.

Mr. R D BROWN, an ordinance authorizing the Morse School Board to erect a frame building. Passed finally.

Also, petition of Peter Minnuger for removal of railroad switch on Twenty-first street. Referred to City Solicitor.

Mr. GALVIN, a resolution instructing the Street Commissioner of the South Side to order the laying of side walks on Pine street. Passed.

Also for the placing of a policeman at the head of Mt. Oliver, Incline plane. Referred to Police Committee.

Mr. FETTERMAN, resolution providing for the repairing of the side walks on Brown street. Passed finally.

Mr. HAYS, an ordinance amending an ordinance providing for the grading and paving of Virgin alley on the South Side. Referred to Street Committee.

Mr. LLOYD presented the report of the Water Committee, being the pay roll for the month of June.

Mr. LLOYD called up the special report recommending the payment of $50 for the use of each of the fire plugs on the South Side for the year ending April 1st, 1874. Referred to the Water Committee, with power to act.

Mr. MORROW, from the Gas Committee, reported the erection of a number of lamps. Accepted.

Mr. E. P. JONES, an ordinance from the Road Committee, authorizing the construction of a sewer in the Twenty-first ward on Jackson street and through private properties. Passed finally.

A resolution directing the board of viewers to report as to the cost of the improvement on Carson street. The action of C. C. in adopting the same was concurred in.

INVESTIGATING THE MAYOR.

Mr. RIDDELL, from the special committee appointed to investigate the accounts of the Mayor's office, &c., reported the action of the Mayor in refusing to sign subpoenas. He submitted the resolution as prepared by the committee and heretofore published. He thought that it should be ascertained whether Councils, through their committees, have any power over city officials, and if not let all questions of investigation be dropped.

At first Mr. MCCARTHY said that he thought the Mayor had committed a great mistake, as it would create an impression that something was wrong. He had an interview with the Mayor who gave as reasons that any names might be placed in the subpoena as made out; that no resolution had been passed by Councils requesting or instructing him to do so, and that he was advised, under existing circumstances, that he had no authority to do as was expected. Now, the speaker said, the Mayor has said no later than this morning that when it came in proper shape, he, the Mayor, would obey the action of Councils.

MR RIDDELL'S SIDE

Mr. RIDDELL said he could not see how an individual member could speak for the Mayor, when his acts were public and of different showing. The speaker had presented to the Mayor a subpœna in which were at least four names, and still he had refused to sign until he had cousulted his attorney. Now, the speaker thought the Councils ought to know what power they have and ought to assert it if they have any.

Mr. LITTELL thought both parties were right, there could be authority for all acts, and now that the committee ask needful authority it should be given them, but no censure should be cast on the Mayor for hesitating until he had a legal opinion. The Mayor evidently acted carefully and properly and the opinion of a lawyer such as Mr. Woods, is entitled to weight. The Mayor then in refusing did right.

Mr. MCCARTHY said that when in proper shape and refusal was made, he would be among the first to take legal action and compel obedience. He asked for a division of the question.

EXISTING ABUSES.

Mr. KIRK offered the following:

Resolved, That the committee now auditing the Mayor's accounts be further instructed to inquire into any existing abuses in the Mayor's office, especially whether any money or valuables have been taken from the persons of prisoners and retained contrary to law, and report what legislation is necessary to correct any existing evils.

Mr. MCCARTHY moved to strike out the last resolution of the report.

Mr. RIDDELL called attention to the fact that Councils had now agreed to adjourn until September, and in case the Mayor again refused to sign subpœnas, without the second resolution the Committee could do nothing.

Mr. E. P. JONES said that at the opening of the subject he thought that it amounted to nothing, but the very fact that papers and books were refused, and hindrances placed before the Committee, had led him and others to believe that there was something wrong. He did not see why any one should be afraid of reflecting on the Mayor. The acts and equivocations of the office were the strongest reflections against it.

Mr. KIRK thought that there were charges made against the Mayor's office much worse, and demanding investigation more particularly, than questions of fees and emoluments. He referred to charges that poor and ignorant people were "fleeced."

Mr. LITTELL thought that there should be more "business" for the amount of noise that had been made.

Mr. ZERN said that while friendly to the Mayor, he could not but denounce the way the committees had been treated.

The motion to strike out the second resolution was lost.

The additional resolution by Mr. Kirk was again read.

Mr. JEREMY stated his resolution already passed covered the same points.

The resolution was passed, and also those of the committee.

THE STREET SCRAPER.

Mr. KIRK asked to hear from the First ward election committee.

By request of Mr. Littell, chairman, the committee appointed to examine into the workings of the Voorhees street scraper was discharged, and the matter was referred to the Road Committee.

In answer to the inquiry of Mr Kirk, Mr. Mc Carthy stated that there was no agreement of the committee.

Mr. RAFFERTY moved to discharge the committee from further consideration of the subject. The motion was adopted almost unanimously.

COMMON COUNCIL BUSINESS.

Common Council business was then taken up and all matters were concurred in except as otherwise noted.

On motion of Dr. McCandless the resolution providing for the publication of sub committees in book form was indefinitely postponed.

On motion of R. H. SMITH, the ordinance changing the grade of Fifth avenue at Soho was indefinitely postponed.

The plan of Clay alley, in the Thirteenth ward, was objected over by Mr. Jones.

THIRTY-THIRD STREET BRIDGE.

The ordinance amending the contract with the Pennsylvania Railroad, as to the bridge at Thirty-third street was taken up.

Mr. PHILLIPS moved the second reading of the ordinance by the title, which was done.

Mr. PHILLIPS offered a resolution in connection therewith, instructing the Engineer to present to Councils a profile of the grade of the street with the bridges to be constructed; also at Thirtieth street. Mr. Phillips stated that correct information was needed, as many statements have been made as to what the grade will be under the original agreement.

Mr. HERRON did not see the object of the resolution. A contract was made, and it should be adhered to. He thought if the original plan was feasible at the time it was made, it is practicable now.

Mr. PHILLIPS stated that at the time the original ordinance was passed there had been no survey made, but it was believed to be feasible. Now, after examination, the engineers of the railroad say it is not practicable to place a bridge at Thirty-third street, and for the information of members of Council, it is desired to have the City Engineer survey and present a report thereon.

Mr. PEARSON had no objection, provided that the survey be made from the grades as set down in the ordinance.

FAVORS AN EXAMINATION.

Mr. E. P. JONES argued in favor of an examination and full report from the city's own officer, so that all members may vote intelligently.

Mr. WATSON said that it was the interest of the people to hold the railroad to their contract. If a vote was taken the people directly interested would vote almost unanimously against a change.

In answer to an inquiry, the chair (Mr. Riddell) stated that the ordinance was not under consideration; it was the resolution instructing the Engineer to report information.

Mr. RAFFERTY thought that Mr. Watson ought to remember that he voted against the people when he voted to shut up Washington and Grant streets.

Mr. WATSON moved to indefinitely postpone the resolution. Lost.

The question was then called on the resolution.

Mr. R. H. SMITH moved to amend the resolution by adding that said survey shall be made upon data by which the contract was made.

CLOSING BUSINESS.

The ordinance for the grading of Pine alley was referred to the Street Committee.

An ordinance changing the grade of Ellsworth avenue was laid over, a motion to suspend the rules being lost.

The ordinance providing for a sewer on Thirty-eighth street was indefinitely postponed.

The ordinance providing for the numbering of houses in Diamond street was postponed, for the reason that a general plan is to be adopted.

An ordinance relative to the construction of a sewer on Hazel street was objected to by Dr. McCandless, there not being a quorum present.

Adjourned.

COMMON COUNCIL.

W. B. NEGLEY........................President.
GEO. BOOTH........................Clerk.

The chairman called this branch to order at a quarter past two o'clock. The roll was called and the following members answered to their names.

Messrs. Arensberg, Arnholt, Bindley, Boyd S. M., Boyd James, Bryce, Brashear, Campbell, Everson, Finley, Fleming, Follansbee, Foley, Frauens, Frew, Fulton, Harris, Jones, Kerr, Lee, Lowrey, Maple, Moore John, Moore Joseph, Morgan, McGimpsey, Oberheidman, Perchment, Rahauser, Richards, Riley, Rolfe, Sewell, Semple, Sneathen, Trautman, West, Wilbert, Williams and President Negley.

On motion the reading of the minutes was dispensed with.

REGULAR BUSINESS.

Mr. FULTON—Petition for iron clad building and ordinance granting privilege for same to Henry Herr, on corner of Strawberry and Foster's alley. Ordinance passed.

Mr. LOWRIE—Petition for gas lamp on Bedford avenue. Referred.

Mr. JONES—Petition for gas lamp on corner of Forbes and Gist street. Referred. Resolution that Councils adjourn over until August 25th. Passed.

Mr. FOLLANSBEE—Remonstrance against occupancy of Fifth street, formerly Pitt street, by wagons. Referred.

Petition for frame building in Fourteenth ward. Referred.

Petition for sewer on Butler street, from Forty first to Forty-second street. Referred.

Petition of Catharine McCready in relation to sewer on Penn avenue, and a remonstrance against the grading of Calvin street. Referred.

Mr. FINLEY: Petition for gas lamp on Meadow street. Referred.

Mr. WEST: Petition for frame building on Twenty-ninth street. Referred.

Mr. BRASHEAR: Remonstrance against widening of Washington street, South Side. Referred.

Mr. SEMPLE: Petition for gas lamp on corner of Beeren street and Wylie avenue. Referred.

Mr. Jones presented a special report of Street Committee. It was received and filed, and the following ordinances acted upon:

Ordinance establishing grade on Forty-second street, from Butler street to Penn avenue.

Mr. JOSEPH MOORE was opposed to any change of grade on the street referred to, and moved that the matter be indefinitely postponed.

Mr. CAMPBELL was opposed to any postponement, and Mr. FULTON desired that the ordinance might be referred to the City Solicitor for his opinion.

The Chairman referred the ordinance to the Board of Street Improvements.

Resolution granting Charles Gearing the privilege of opening streets to lay down gas pipes on the South Side. Passed.

Petition and ordinance for grading of Mohawk street, between Sobo and Burroughs street. Petition received and filed and ordinance passed finally.

SURVEY COMMITTEE.

Mr. FLEMING presented the report of the Survey Committee, submitting the following business for approval: Grade profile of Bedford avenue. Approved. Grade profile of Brownsville and Washington avenues, South Side. Approved. Plan of Clay alley. Thirteenth ward. Adopted. Siebert & Kyle's plan of lots, in the Eighteenth ward. Adopted. Plan of survey in Twentieth ward, made for George R. White. Adopted.

Ordinance changing the name of the portion of McFarland street from Elmer street to Ellsworth avenue to Belle Ashton place.

Messrs. FOLLANSBEE and Finley opposed any change of name of only a portion of the street, but the ordinance was passed.

Ordinance locating Clay alley, passed finally. Ordinance for change of grade on Butler street, from Forty-ninth street to Fiftieth street, passed finally. Stoys' plan of lots on Liberty avenue, adopted.

SPECIAL COMMITTEES.

Mr. CAMPBELL presented the report of the special committee on change of line between Eleventh and Thirteenth wards, reporting adversely to any change.

The report was received and filed, and on motion adopted.

Mr. CAMPBELL also presented an ordinance to authorize Patrick McKallip to erect a frame building in Seventeenth ward. Passed finally, it having been approved by the Building Inspector, and an ordinance authorizing Jno. Dogan to erect a frame addition was also passed.

Petition for grading and paving of Church alley, Fifteenth ward. Referred.

Mr JONES called up the ordinance laid on the table at the last meeting, providing for a change of grade on Ellsworth avenue, from Aiken avenue to Ivy street.

A remonstrance was presented against the same. It was received and filed, and the ordinance, after some discussion, was referred to the City Solicitor for his opinion.

Unfinished business from Select Council.

Resolution asking that Councils adjourn after the present meeting until the second Monday of September. Concurred in.

Resolution relative to numbering of houses on the South Side. Concurred in, and Messrs Brashear, Maple and Trautman appointed on behalf of Common Council.

Ordinance authorizing change of grade on Cherry alley. Concurred in.

Ordinance authorizing change of grade on Fourth avenue. Concurred in.

Ordinance supplementary to an ordinance for the improvement of Hiland avenue. Concurred in.

All the following business from Select Council was concurred in except as otherwise noted:

Ordinance opening Alder street. Ordinance providing for disbursement of moneys received for street improvements. Remonstrance against changing of the bridge from Thirty-third street. Remonstrance against change of grade on Penn avenue from Butler street to Thirty-first street. Resolution authorizing the Police Committee or any sub committee thereof to examine the accounts of the Mayor, &c. Resolution authorizing the City Engineer to fix grades on Colwell and Miller streets.

THE FIFTH AVENUE LINE.

MR MCGIMPSEY moved to reconsider the vote taken at the last meeting, on the change of the line of Fifth avenue from O'Hara street to angle west of Shady lane. The ayes and nays being demanded the motion was carried by a vote of 19 to 18.

The chairman then announced that the question would recur on the motion that was made at the last meeting to indefinitely postpone and which was then carried, and that if the ordinance was again indefinitely postponed after a reconsideration of the former vote was taken it would finally end the matter and that it could never come up again.

MR. BRASHEAR spoke at length in opposition to any indefinite postponement, and thought that the action of select council in passing the ordinance, ought to be concurred in. He said the work should go on and be delayed no longer.

After further discussion on the part of Messrs. Moore, Jones, Rolfe, Semple, Campbell, Fulton, Fleming and Negley, the question was called on the indefinite postponement of the ordinance, and the ayes and nays were demanded with the following result:

Ayes—Messrs. Arensburg, Bindley, Boyd James, Boyd S. M., Campbell, Fleming, Fulton, Harris, Jones, Kerr, Lee, Lowrey, Maple, Moore John, Moore Joseph, Oberheidman, Perchment, Riley, Sewell, West and Williams—21.

Nays—Arnholt, Bryce, Brashear, Everson, Finley, Fellansbee, Foley, Frauens, Frew, Morgan, McGimpsey, Rahauser, Richards, Rolfe, Semple, Sneathen, Trautman, Wilbert and Negley—19.

Further business from select council and concurred in. Ordinance granting to Morse, sub-district school privilege to erect a frame building. Report of Gas committee. Report from the Committee on Water in relation to the claim of Monongahela Water Company. Resolution instructing the Street Commissioner to pave the side walks on Pine street. Resolution for the issue of subpœnas, &c., in the investigation of the Mayor's office. Opening plan of Park avenue; approved. Resolution authorizing the Controller to draw a warrant in favor of Messrs. McKinley Bros for $203.

The opinion of the City Solicitor having been rendered to the effect that Councils had the power to make any change they deemed proper in the grade of Forty-second street, the ordinance providing for the change was called up on its second reading and indefinitely postponed by a vote of 12 to 11.

On motion of Mr. Jones the ordinance for a change of grade on Elsworth avenue was passed.

Viewers report on Carson street improvement received and filed, and the ordinance for re-grading and paving of Carson street, from the Monongahela bridge to Eleventh street, on the South Side, was laid on the table.

On motion, Common Council then adjourned to meet again the second Monday in September.

····Samuel McElroy, son of Mr. S. B. McElroy, of the firm of Dickson, McElroy & Co. of this city, was severely injured by a pistol bullet being accidentally discharged; the ball lodging in his hip. The bullet, though probed for, has not as yet been found.

····John Bolz, a carpenter, while at work in the second story of a house in Pleasant Valley, Allegheny, yesterday, fell out of a window and had one of his arms broken. He was attended to by Dr. B. B. Smith, and afterwards removed to his home on Lowrie street.

····The man Delaway, who was with Wattles when he was smothered in a vault on Saturday, died yesterday from the effects of his injuries. Coroner West held an inquest, but nothing new was elicited. The particulars have been given heretofore. A verdict of accidental death was rendered.

····The new John Wesley Church, through the diligence of its members rapidly approaches completion. Their pastor, Dr. Williams, has made a liberal donation to the Church, in addition to a loan of one hundred dollars. Mrs. Malvina Lawson, a cripple, collected $100 for the Church. Mr. Thomas Gillott collected for the Church $154.

····We were shown, last evening, a copy of the preamble and resolutions passed by the Pittsburgh Clearing House Association, in relation to the death of Robert Alden Arthurs, engrossed by Mr. William H. Duff, of Duff's College. The execution is very artistic, and reflects great credit upon Mr. Duff. It will, no doubt, be highly valued by the relatives of the deceased.

····Yesterday, F. Vogel appeared before Alderman McMasters and made an information charging Samuel Buston with false pretense. He alleges that the defendant, who resides in Baldwin township, bought live stock and other articles of him to the value of $500, claiming that he had money in the Fifth Avenue Bank, and he alleges that the accused paid him with a check on that bank, which is worthless. Warrant issued.

THE COULTER-SCHARFF RACE OFF.

Meeting Last Night—Inability to Agree on a Starting Point or Referee—Decision in the Wright-Snyder Contest.

Last night a meeting was held on Fifth avenue for the purpose of choosing a referee to act in the race for the championship of the United States that was announced to come off on Saturday next on the upper Monongahela course, but it now seems as though there is no probability at all of its taking place. Two of Scharff's representatives were present, and the same number were on hand on behalf of Coulter. The real object of the meeting was to choose a referee, but a discussion was commenced in regard to the point at which the start should be made, and as nothing would be conceded on either side the conference broke up with the understanding that the great race between Coulter and Scharff, which has been talked of in sporting circles for months, would not take place at all. Coulter's representative demanded that the boat race should begin at the upper end of the course, a distance of two and a half miles up the Monongahela river from Nineteenth street on the South Side.

Scharff's representative replied that by the article of agreement Scharff was allowed the privilege of naming the course, which he had done, and that it was not Coulter's prerogative to say where the race should commence. He said they had met for the purpose of choosing a referee, and that that matter had better be settled before anything else was discussed.

To this proposition, however, Coulter's friend would not lend an ear unless he was given the privilege of naming the place at which the start should be made.

Scharff's man did not favor the granting of such permission to Coulter, but, although not acting under the advice of Scharff, he would unbend a little, and agreed to toss up as to who should name the starting point.

Even to so fair a proposition as that Coulter's friend would not agree, and after some further discussion the parties separated, and it is now generally understood in sporting circles that the race will not take place.

Scharff, however, on Saturday next will row over the course, with or without Coulter, and in case his opponent is not present he will claim the stakes—even if a referee is not appointed. It is easily seen from the above that there is a desire, not on the part of Scharff, however, to postpone the contest, and perhaps defeat it altogether.

THE WRIGHT-SNYDER RACE.

Americus Force, the referee in the above named race, rendered a decision last night awarding the money to Wright. The foul that he claimed as having been made on Saturday last by a crew of the McKee club, was acknowledged, and the men apologized for it. He will get the stakes to-day.

TOO MUCH MARRIED.

A Crawford County Florist with Two Wives—He Obtains a Divorce from No. 1 in Iowa.

Pleasantville, Crawford county, has been thrown into a state of excitement over the doings of a young flori-culturist named C. A. Reeser. Mr. Reeser had been married to a young lady some nine years ago. This woman aided him in all his undertakings, and in fact proved to be him a genuine helpmeet. In course of time the father of the young man bought a little place, and Reeser built green-houses and flourished for a time. He seemed to get along very well satisfied, but at times he seemed morose and subject to spells of despondency. In these moods he would write very long letters, and it is these very long letters that caused the trouble. In the course of business he became acquainted with a young lady named Allen M. Good. She liked his epistles, and grew to be an intimate with his terms. He then went to Prairie du Chien, Iowa, and procured a divorce from wife No. 1, and married Miss Good in West Virginia. They lived together in Erie for a while, and then he went back to Pleasantville with his second wife, when his father drove him off with his first love. He then went back to Erie, where he now resides, and when his wife No. 1 found out his treachery, and when she found out that they were divorced. He then went back to Pleasantville and applied ... The second wife is supposed to not have been to blame, as she is believed to have married being a vitim to his wiles.

Merchants,
